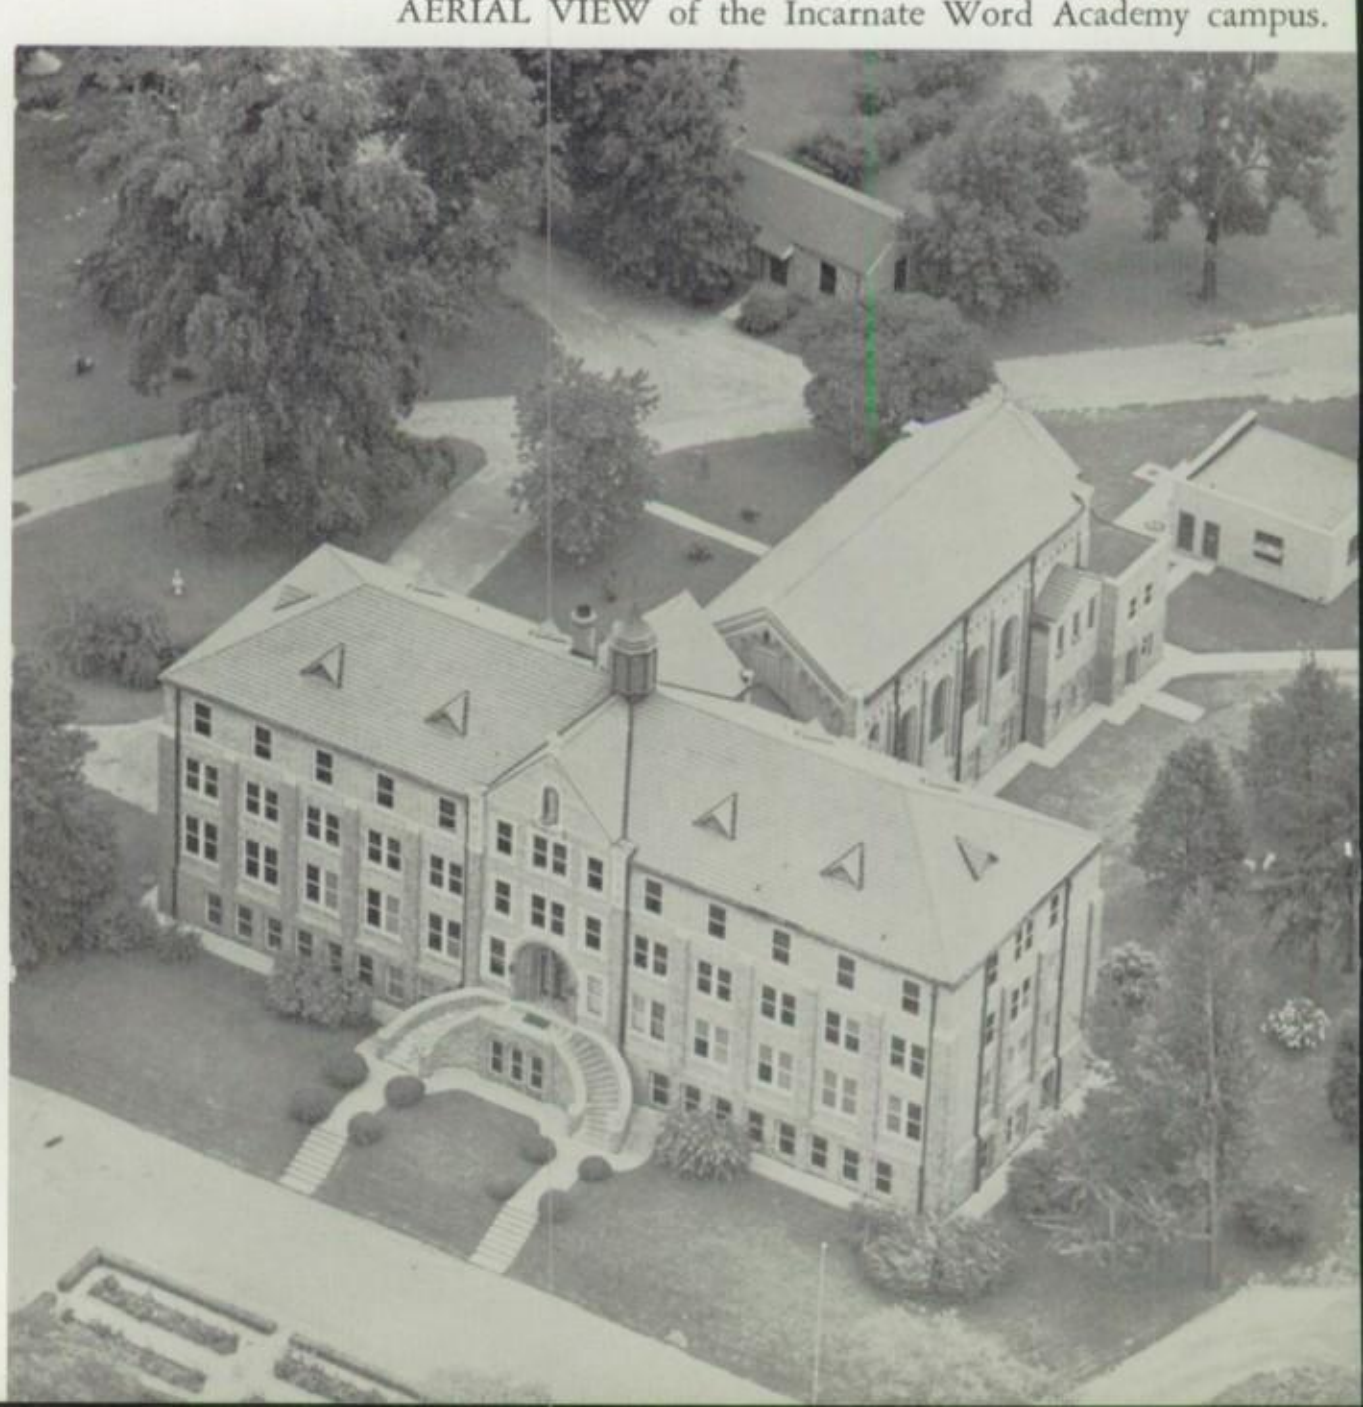
BLESSING THE SITE for the new Convent wing is Father Mathay M.S.F. assisted by Father Albers M.S.F. Others present are Mr. P. Rodgers, Mr. Sam Rollo, Mr. C. G. Drum, Mr. P. R. Rubinelli, Dorothy Sanning, Vera Borgmeyer, Rosaline Stegeman, Sister M. Cordula, Sister Theresa of the Incarnate Word, Sister Hubert, Mother John Francis, Mother M. Scholastica,—Provincial Superioress,—Sister Fidelma, Sister Patrick Joseph, Sister Mary Francis, Sister Teresa Joseph, Sister Marietta, and Sister M. Eleanor.

NEW ADDITION TO INCARNATE WORD

AERIAL VIEW of the Incarnate Word Academy campus.



There are three school buildings and a Convent building on the IWA campus. One of the school buildings contains the home rooms of the Juniors and Seniors, and another houses the Freshmen and the Sophomores.

ARCHITECT'S IDEA of what the new wing will look like when it is completed. The work began in September and we expect it will be finished before another Christmas has rolled around.

CONVENT IS BEGUN IN SEPTEMBER 1959

ON THE RIGHT of the picture are the school buildings.

The school gymnasium is a separate building,—it also serves as an auditorium.

The oldest building is Senior Hall which is sandwiched between the two classroom buildings.

FOREWORD

Christianity is essentially a religion of service. Christ said of Himself that He came into the world not to be served but to serve and to give His life for the redemption of many. Christ also said that the criterion for our judgment will be what kind of service we have given.

On the day when our last of final examinations will take place the grades will be awarded on the basis of service. We have God's word for it. The Lord will say, "Come, blessed of My Father, take possession of the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for

> I was hungry and you gave Me to eat;
> I was thirsty and you gave me to drink;
> I was a stranger and you took Me in;
> naked and you covered Me; sick and you visited Me; I was in prison and you came to Me . . . as long as you did it for one of these, the least of My brethren, you did it for Me.

Service, then is our business as Christians. In our youth it is imperative that we grasp this idea. So very much depends on it. Service, in Christ's name to the members of Christ's mystical body will determine our eternity.

This tremendous importance of service for our present and future lives led us to choose it as the theme of our 1960 yearbook.

Our cover pictures the members of the IWA Honor Society. These girls are noted among other things for their service to their school.

"Joyful service to others for the sake of Christ," should be the motto of every Christian.

Thanks
To a real cute V.P. Have lots of fun in your senior year and some times remember -
Mary Lee

Because of the outstanding Service
she has done
our school
we are proud to dedicate this volume of
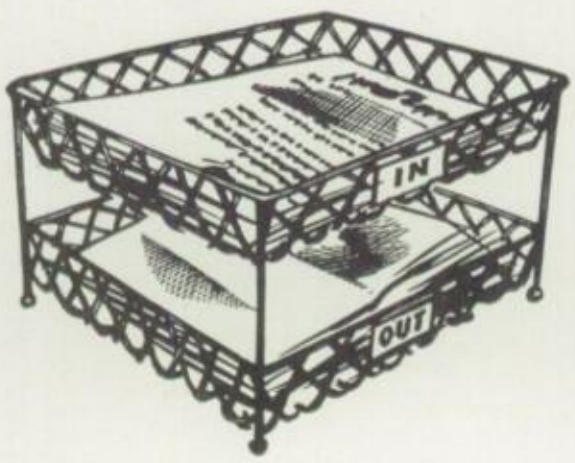
THE LIGHT
to Sister Albeus,
Principal of IWA
1955-1959

WE WELCOME A NEW PRINCIPAL

Incarnate Word Academy welcomes SISTER M. ELEANOR CCVI as its new Principal and looks forward to many years of growth and success under her leadership. This is the second school in which Sister Eleanor has served as Principal—the first being Windhorst High School, Windhorst, Texas.

SISTER M. EDWIN has a frightening schedule since she serves as Senior Sponsor, teacher of Religion IV, three sections of fourth year English, and a Latin class for a group of Seniors.



MOTHER JOHN FRANCIS is a familiar sight around the IWA campus. This year her duties as Provincial Treasurer have kept her busy at the Convent, but she does find time to give some music lessons.

SISTER M. REGINA is a Junior home room moderator, a Vocation Club moderator, directs the school branch of the World Missionaries besides teaching two sections of American History, three sections of Civics, and Junior Religion.

MISS ALTA ROYAL, basketball coach, is a Senior home room moderator, teaches Religion IV, physical and health education.

"THEY SERVE GOD WELL,

SISTER LOUIS KATHERINE—teacher of Home Economics is also sponsor of Student Council, Sodality Moderator, Moderator of a Junior home room, and teaches Junior Religion.

SISTER REPARATA is kept busy with four classes in Biology. She is moderator of the Science Club and of the Athletic Association.

SISTER JOSEPH ALPHONSUS — teacher of Freshman and Sophomore English, Religion 3, Speech and Drama, finds time to act as moderator of the Drama Club, and as Sponsor of the Junior Class.

WHO SERVE HIS CREATURES." — Caroline Norton

SISTER MARY FRANCIS—Voice lessons and choral work become a pleasure to students of SISTER. In her "spare" time she moderates a Vocation Club, a section of the Sodality and also teaches Junior Religion.

SISTER M. MARIETTA is new at IWA this year, but she has plans for her classes—they will be equipped with a solid foundation in their English language. Sister teaches a section of English I, II, and III besides a section of Junior Religion. In addition she acts as moderator to a Junior home room group and to a section of the Sodality.

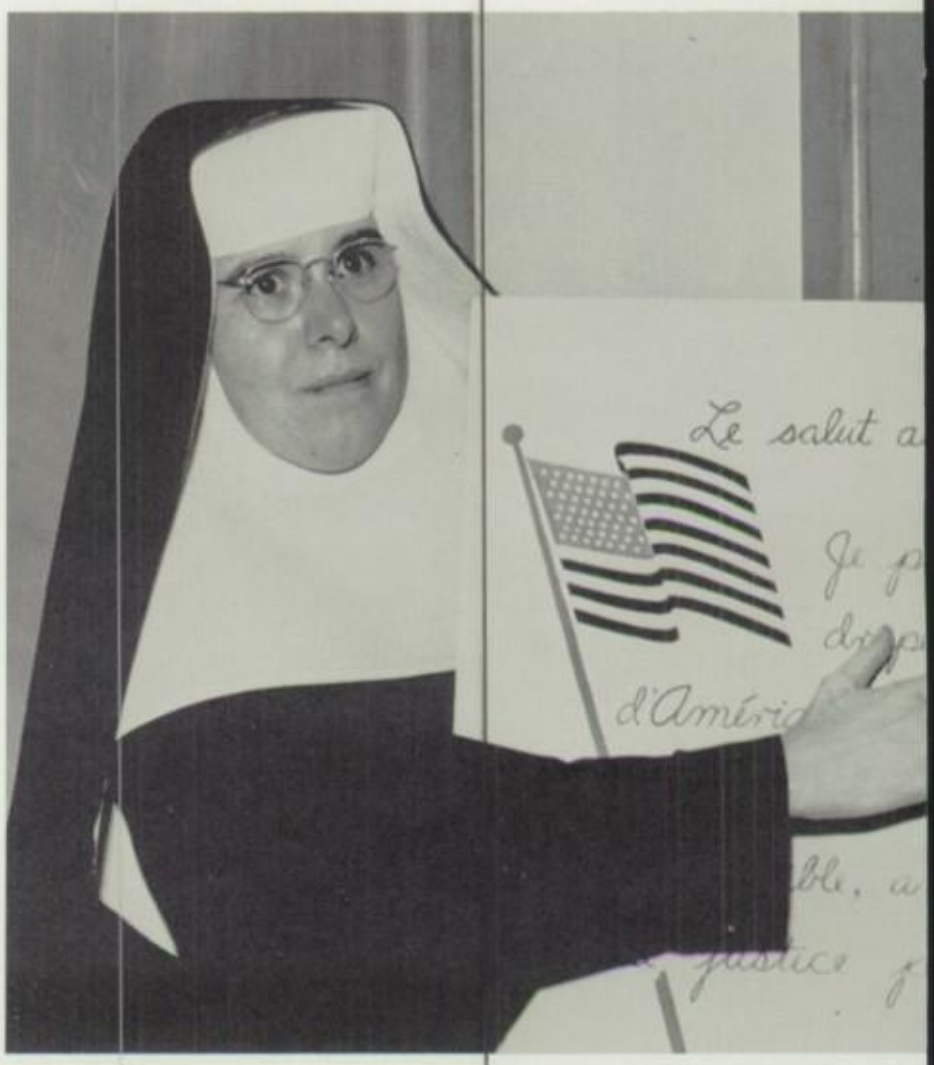
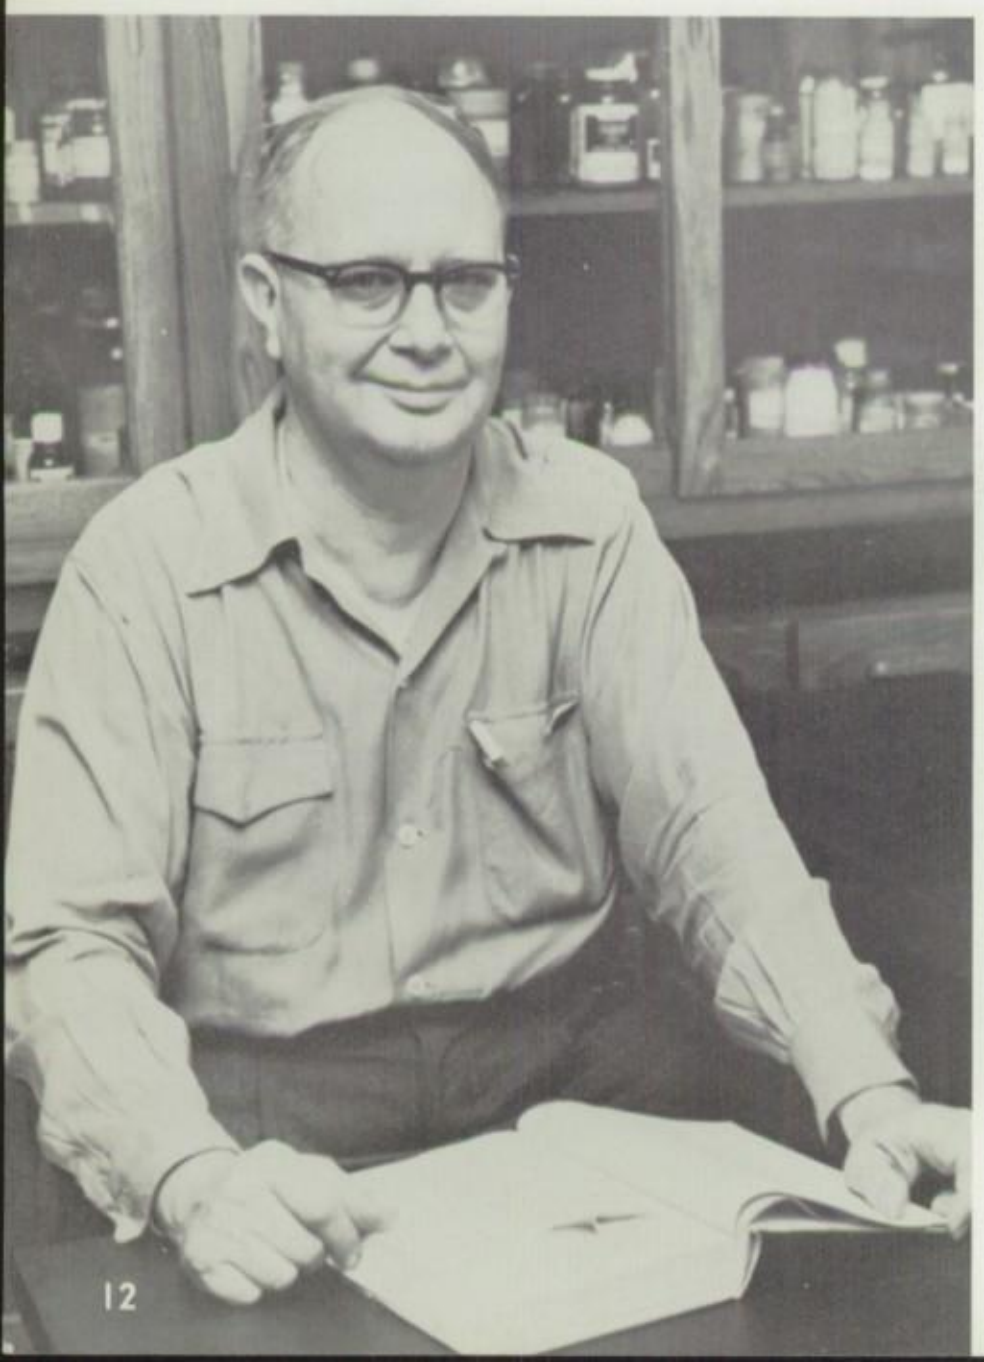
OUR TEACHERS AROUSE

SISTER M. BASIL, Spanish and Art teacher is moderator of three clubs: Art Club, Vocation Club, and Sodality. In addition, Sister teaches Freshman Religion and is the Freshman Class Sponsor.



MOTHER ANN BERNARD—Besides teaching English I and French I is a Sodality and Vocation Club Moderator and the Director of the school paper.



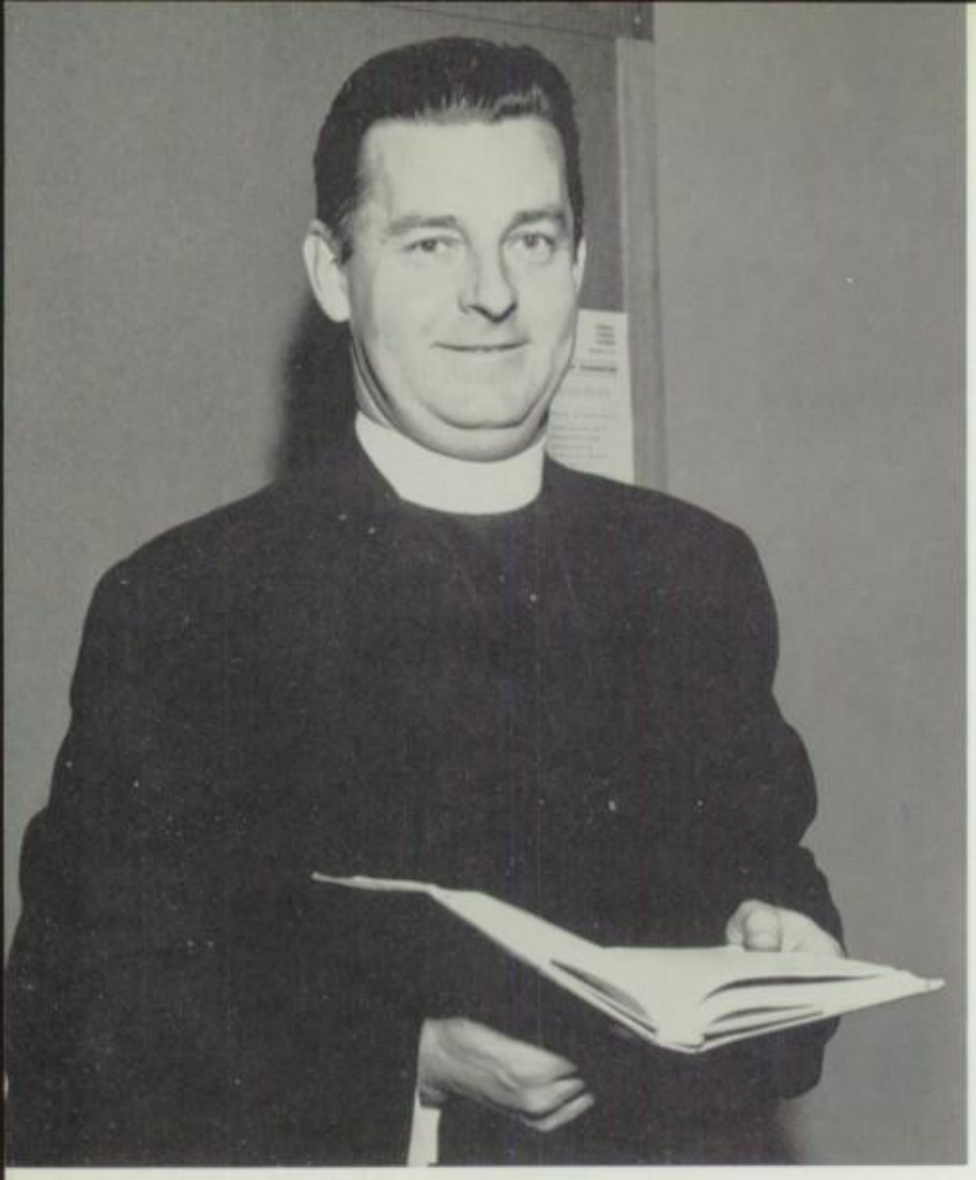
MR. CHARLES PAULSON teaches Chemistry, Geometry and Freshman Algebra.

INTEREST AND KINDLE ENTHUSIASM.

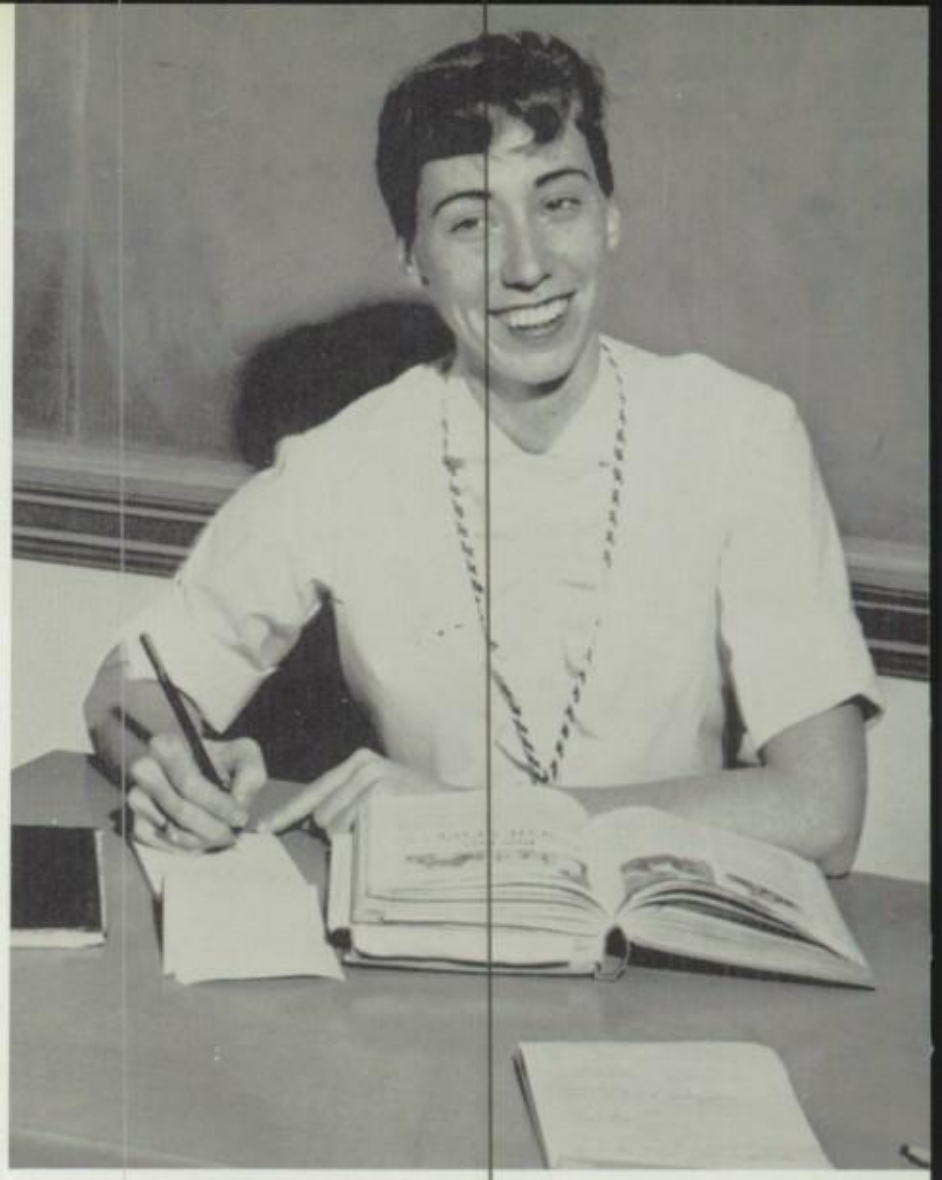
SISTER PATRICK JOSEPH teaches Sophomore Religion, Senior and Junior Latin. She is Moderator of a Sophomore home room group and of the Latin Club.

SISTER M. CORDULA teacher of American Problems, three sections of World History, Sophomore Religion is the Sophomore Class Sponsor.

SISTER TERESA JOSEPH teaches Trigonometry, Geometry, Algebra I, and II. She is the Moderator of the Yearbook THE LIGHT.



REV. ROBERT P. SLATTERY, M.S.W. teaches a marriage course to two groups of seniors two days a week.



MISS HANNEFIN, teacher of American History is also a physical education teacher and volleyball varsity coach. She is a Junior home room moderator and teaches Junior Religion.

THESE PEOPLE WORK AND PLAN

SISTER M. GERTRUDE is the school treasurer. Sister came to us from Amarillo, Texas, at the beginning of this school year.

MRS. L. KUESTER, who is a registered nurse, is very helpful in taking care of minor illnesses. She also acts as secretary to the Principal.

MRS. C. PAULSON is assistant librarian and also teaches Junior English.

SISTER MARY OF THE ASSUMPTION is a senior home room moderator, a teacher of typing, shorthand, and business English and mathematics.

TO MAKE US HAPPY

MRS. REDDEN is the planner behind the delicious meals served daily in the cafeteria.

SISTER ANGELA MERICI is the keeper of the snack bar and an expert on students' tastes.

LET US HAVE FAITH THAT RIGHT MAKES MIGHT, AND IN THAT FAITH LET US, TO THE END, DARE TO DO OUR DUTY AS WE UNDERSTAND IT.

—Lincoln

EVENTS

HOMECOMING SUCCESS

The 1959 IWA Homecoming on September 27 was a gala affair, marking the 27th anniversary of the founding of the school.

SHOULD OLD ACQUAINTANCE BE REMEMBERED . . . Sue Gueck, one of the most faithful library assistants greets Sister Mary Stephen, Librarian.

THE PHOTOGRAPHER COULDN'T SNEAK UP ON THESE alert lassies. Lynn Johnson and Mary E. Clarkin are well aware of the hazards of a homecoming celebration and so they keep their wits about them.

NOW THAT CAN'T BE POSSIBLE! . . . Sister Joseph Alphonsus is not assured, (in spite of Laurie Renner's insistence) that it is possible to throw a ring around a coke bottle from such a distance.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT . . . Pat Shannahan is fascinated by the band music. We suspect that she is fascinated by any music, for we know that Pat thinks there is nothing in this world so wonderful. These musicians donated their talent and time to IWA for the day.

HARD WORK AND PLAY . . .

SOPHOMORE BOOTH . . . "Try your luck!" is the invitation extended by Marine Vandeven. Barb Littlefield and Sue Cotner wear that disappointed look. They tried and lost!

YOU DON'T SAY . . . Mary Ann Holmes is not too sympathetic with those who do not win at her booth. Jeanne Gerardot wears a knowing look and passes by.

ANNUAL HOMECOMING

EXPERT ANNOUNCING . . . Mr. Roy Mayo, a tireless member of the IWA Fathers' Club, takes his turn at the mike.

SO MANY RINGS AND NO MORE . . . Counting out the rings at her class booth is Judy Frankowski.

. . . MAKE THIS A GREAT DAY

SOME HAVE ALL THE LUCK . . . Mr. Ray Tenge, President of the Fathers' Club, gives away a radio to Jackie Shields. It was a prize for an extra specially decorated car in the parade.

MORE OF THE SAME . . . Pat Steinlage is the winner of a massage pillow. Jeannie Ahearn smilingly approves.

PENSIVE . . . Sue Stewart ponders her chances of ringing a bottle.

RECORDED FOR POSTERITY . . . This is Kathy Costello's entry in the parade! She won a transistor radio—and she must surely have had a lot of fun decorating this Ford. (Note: The Secret Order of Scare Crows is NOT a campus organization.)

WE HAVE KOOKIE HERE! His face is hidden but the comb is in evidence. The girls present are Donna Williams and Leslie Smith.

THE END OF A PERFECT DAY . . . Many of the girls stayed with their dates to enjoy the dance that lasted until midnight. This is Joyce Windmoeller and her date. The others we are unable to identify.

MAKING SCENERY FOR THE PLAY . . . Kathy Costello, Mary Virginia Dwyer, and Pat McDonnell deserve much praise for their contribution to the play "Spreading The News."

TEA LINE . . . Seen at the Junior Silver Tea are Marilyn Schroer with some of the '59 graduates: Janet Elias, Doris Masek, Carol Ballmann, and Barbara Uelk.

THE POSE TELLS THE STORY . . . Each year, the Seniors are convinced that their class ring is the most beautiful thing in the world. Here Kathy Costello and Earlene Chott show off their rings.

Early in September, eager and enthusiastic Seniors assembled in the Gym to receive their treasured class rings. This was the first activity of the school year, but in quick succession came many more opportunities to relax from the daily grind of studies. The Junior Silver Tea was one such oasis, and the Style Show sponsored by Youth Incorporated was another.

We know that we are in school primarily to study, but we do welcome these opportunities to relax and enjoy social events with our fellow students.

PRETTILY POSING before the Style Show are Judy Brncic, Donna Mitulski, and Virginia Langhorst.

HARD WORKERS ENJOY HOURS OF FUN

MORE RINGS . . . Mary Barbara Durso, and Patricia Abeln are eager to show off their newly acquired jewelry.

MORE PUNCH . . . Georgian Taucher, Judy Costello, Carol Becherer, Judy Klaus, Marilyn Gardner, Irma Koropecky, Mary Ann Proost and other friends of IWA enjoy a spot of "tea."

CHRISTMAS PARTY THE BEST EVER

WHAT A DOLL! Gloria Gerardot and Lucy Ryan pose with a doll that Lucy won during a Civics Club party.

TRIMMING THE TREE are Dorothy Piel, Susan Crump, Kathy Dowl, Trudy Rutherford, Ruth Knopf, and Diane F. Novak.

Every year, just before the Christmas holidays, the Fathers' Club sponsors a Christmas party. It is one of the highlights of the year and the girls look forward to it with much excitement and anticipation. This year was just as we expected it—a party that we shall long remember.

BIG GIFTS AND LITTLE GIFTS—but all appreciated gifts are displayed by Sue Thornton, Kathy O'Connell, Sandra Verble, Beverly Braun, Joan Sickman, and Rose Ann Waldorf.

SENIORS EXCHANGE GIFTS . . . Jackie Free shows her gift to Carol Mayo.

JUNIORS' JEWELRY is displayed by Sue Earle, Mary Beth Fink, Sandra Eisenhart, Sherry Rogers, Pat Garrigan, and Margaret Eschbacher.

ASSEMBLIES WERE INSTRUCTIVE AND

NARRATOR . . . Jackie DuMont did an excellent job as narrator for "Know Your America."

KNOW YOUR AMERICA directed by Sister Regina and staged by the American History classes was one of the treats of the year. These characters from out of America's past are portrayed by: Judy Hermann, Mary Alice Weber, Jackie Roby, Virginia Weidner, Mary A. Fienup, and Barbara Hartmann.

SIGNING THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE . . . Pat McGauley, Micki Ickenroth, and Theresa Kickham portrayed in a very convincing manner the signers of the Declaration of Independence in a play presented for general assembly in November.

DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINING

FRESHMEN DO A PLAY ABOUT THE FIRST THANKSGIVING . . . Dot Cusick, Sherrill Savin, Mary Ann Borsch, and Elaine Everett kept us entertained in this very interesting play.

RECIPIENTS OF COURTESY AWARDS, Sharyn Larkin, Margaret Mudd, Carole Knoll, and Rita Mulligan most graciously let us get their picture after they had been voted the most courteous girls in their respective classes.

SONGBIRD . . . Miss Candida Pilla, a talented American vocalist, gave a concert that will long be remembered by those fortunate enough to have heard her.

WHILE SHEPHERDS WATCHED THEIR FLOCKS

A LOOK OF CONTENTMENT . . . Mary Jo Quinn seems happy with her thoughts of the Christ Child. Sandy George and Sharon Layton listen eagerly to her words.

THE NATIVITY . . . All the shepherds and their wives have come to pay their sincere homage to the Christ Child. Mary Jo Quinn, Ginny Dwyer, Peggy Wahby, Helen Perdue, (Mary), Sue Kohler, Penny Neumann, Marilyn Janning, Florence Buescher, Sandy George, and Joanne Pohlmann.

A STAR SHONE IN THE SKY

"WON'T YOU COME, MOTHER" asks Peggy Wahby, in rehearsal of the Christmas Drama with Florence Buescher.

A MESSAGE OF PEACE is brought by the shepherd Pat Knittel.

MODELING AS GOOD STUDENTS are Seniors: Mary Wieck, Ellie McKenzie, Peggy Simpson, Barbara Allhoff, Jackie Julius, Barbara Vogel, Margaret Mudd, and Phyllis Vollmer.

ON THE ROAD TO IWA . . . or rather on the steps of Alma Mater are Sue Luechtefeld, Mary Zimmerman, Mary Jeanne Gertken, and Pat Garrigan.

PLANNING FOR FURTHER ACHIEVEMENTS are these Juniors . . . Carol Collier, Irma Koropecky, Tina Tucker, Mary Lowery, and Mary Hildebrant are outstanding members of the Junior class, and are among those who remember that they are in school to learn as much as they possibly can.

HONOR ROLL ACHIEVERS

AT EASE AFTER A SEMESTER OF HARD WORK are Seniors Mimi Cantwell, Mary Lee Tenge, Rosalie DiNoto, and Jackie Shields.

JOYFUL JUNIORS, Sue Waldbart, Nancee Schubert, Jeannette Trampe, Sharon Gibbons, and Rita Mulligan.

PROUD OF THEIR ACHIEVEMENTS are these Seniors: Jeanne Connelly, Margot Mellies, Karen Povich, and Do Do Bauer.

STUDENTS WHO EXERT EFFORT

IN AN INFORMAL MOMENT we were able to get a picture of some of the Sophomores who maintained an average of B or better in the first half of the school year. They are: Nancy Michel, Sheila O'Donnell, Mary Lee Cook, Donna Gibbons, Ruth Overman, and Angie Luby.

SOME FRESHMEN ALSO MAINTAINED HIGH SCHOLASTIC STANDING: Mary Lou O'Connell, Mary Jo Schuermann, Susan Keim, Nancy Alsmeyer, and Charlene Lesniak talk over their good fortune in being named among those who were honor students for their very first semester at Incarnate Word Academy.

RECEIVE RECOGNITION

Every year towards the end of January students at IWA look forward to the publishing of the Honor Roll. It is no easy matter to be named on this famed document. One has to have an average of B. Even if they are just a fraction of a point less than that they are not eligible.

It is almost axiomatic that only those who do good work steadily over the whole semester will make the distinction of being named Honor Students.

If a Freshman and Sophomore can keep on the Honor Roll during her first years in school she has a good chance of becoming a member of the School's chapter of the National Honor Society.

A STORY OF SUCCESS is recounted by these Freshmen as they discuss their names being on the Honor Roll. Sue Thornton, Mary Rick, Sue Klevorn, and Cathie Marischen.

CONSPICUOUS FOR THEIR KNOWLEDGE are Sophs, Marene Vandeven, Kathy Slaus, Ann Renner, and Lucia Signorelli.

WISHING WELL IS CENTER OF INTEREST

OVER THE FENCE, wherever the fence may be, is a good place to get acquainted. Kathy Anthonis and Greg Murphy have a chat with John Keliher, Marilyn Tiemeyer, Doug Wendel and Madonna Maloney.

"I COULD HAVE DANCED ALL NIGHT," but the rules forbade such a procedure and so Mary Kay Brenner, Kathy Fox, and Diana F. Novak had to leave the magic wishing well atmosphere at 11 p.m.

MAGIC MOMENTS are enjoyed by Ken Wikowsky, Pat Murphy, Rich Mills, Mary Jo Zirbas, Dianna R. Novak, and Bob Morgan.

N SOPHOMORE DANCE DECORATIONS

TIME FOR A CHANGE . . . After dancing the bunny hop Judy Koehne, Bill Giessen, Judy Frick, Dick Shields, Rose-Mary Schumacher, and Bill Snythe decide to get in a little conversation.

CHAPERONES . . . Mr. Cluny and Mr. and Mrs. Klaus.

AT IWA HIDEAWAY we met Frank Emma, Dorothy Piel, Terry Mariano, and Susan Crump.

FUN JUST TO TALK . . . In fact anything is fun tonight. Jim Johnson, Susan Kenny, Betty Naber, and Jim Burke are enjoying themselves to the full as the evening wears on.

SOPHOMORES DANCE TO THE MUSIC

KEYED UP and happy with the outcome of their efforts at painting and decorating are Lucia Signorelli and Daria Gagliardi.

It has become a tradition at Incarnate Word Academy for the Sophomores to have their very own dance in the school gym some time in the beginning of February.

Transformed into a veritable fairyland by the deft hand of the talented members of the 1960 Sophs, the staid old gym was a ballroom of distinction.

The Stardusters furnished the dreamy music.

PARENTS OF THE SOPHS were on hand as chaperones. Mr. F. C. Klein, Mr. T. O'Donnell, Mrs. B. Merritt, Mr. and Mrs. C. Crowe, and Trudy Rutherford who is not a parent but who managed to get into this picture.

WELL OF DREAMS and dreamers, John Kohler, Angie Luby, Doug Miller, Mimi Merritt, Sharon Weir, Bill Tauser, Marilyn Gardner, and Fran Frankowski.

OF THE STARDUSTERS

TIME FOR A CHANGE . . . Time to quit eating and begin dancing. Rich Greifzu, Karen Toulster, Carole Sickman, Rich O'Rourke, Kathy Dowl, and Tom Scheibelhut are getting ready for the next swing on the dance floor.

"DRINK TO ME ONLY WITH THINE EYES . . . Tom Liberton, Kathy Slaus, Bob Schaefer, Trudy Rutherford, Bob Morgan, Diana Novak, Bob Tecklenburg, and Lydel Prouhet toast the occasion with a coke.

CORNERED IN A WISHING WELL are Barbara Mitchell, Mary Ann Redmond, and Carol Weber, while their dates, Phil Dean, Dan Neubauer, and Bill Hubber wish they would get out of there and begin to dance.

THE ULTIMATE RESPONSIBILITY of getting the crown to the Queen rests on this page boy. If he were a little older he might be flattered by the interest he is inspiring in Joyce Windmoeller, Carol Dilg, Pat McCauley, Carol Meyer, and Carol Mayo.

EVERY INCH A QUEEN, Mary Beth Collier makes her grand entrance with her escort, Tim Cusick. Admiring glances are bestowed by Karen Lesniak, Tim O'Reilly, Pat Knittel, and Kathy Roe.

TO THE QUEEN OF HEAVEN, all earthly queens must bow, so Mary Beth lays her bouquet of red roses at the feet of Mary of Nazareth.

MARY BETH COLLIER REIGNS AS MISS IWA

SENIORS EMBARK ON

AT THE DROP OF A HAT any girl will pose for her picture especially if she is dressed formally. The Seniors here are true to form: Tony Vitale, Judy Mike, Joann Maruska, Laurie Renner, Karen Bour, and Lois Ernst.

QUEEN MARY BETH COLLIER and Tim Cusick

"A SENTIMENTAL JOURNEY"

CROSSING THE BRIDGE into the makebelieve oriental country is Carol Doerr with her escort Wynn Vaher, and Ginny Langhorst with Bob Moran.

Queen Mary, Princess Marilyn Monahan, Frank Zucol, Princess Mary Ann Stahl, and John Otis.

Tonight the curtain closes
And we take a final bow
To the four years we have spent . . .
Which are slowly ending now.
But let time stop this evening
For just an hour or two
As we recall the memories
That seem, right now, too few.
And gathered all together,
We will not say "Goodbye,"
For thoughts that will prevail
With us, of you, will never die.

By the Juniors

THE COURT IN NEVER NEVER LAND

BUSY LINE . . . Our photographer catches Jo Ann Tongay as she sets her camera for a picture of the court.

PRINCESS JO ANN TONGAY escorted by Gary Wurdack.

PRINCESS MARY ANN STAHL and John Otis

PRINCESS MARY LORRAINE BAUER and Gary Ward

PRINCESS MARILYN MONAHAN and Frank Zucol

MENU CHANGE . . . Georgian Taucher and Carol Becherer have made the momentous decision to forget about diets for this one magic evening.

THE MOST ENCHANTING EVENING OF THE YEAR

DIPPING IN for a snack and a gab session are Gail Miller, Clare Cummings, and Mary Ann Stolte as they take a moment out from their dancing.

NOW, NOW, NOW, . . . We do not know which group to look at. Jackie Julius is enjoying a gabfest. Mary Hepburn, Sandra Gregor, and Carol Piel are resting and chatting, and Maureen Cleary is saluting an acquaintance.

TO POINT OR NOT TO POINT . . . Carol Mayo points without seeming to and Barbara Wieck looks without seeming to.

A JOKE IS A JOKE and Father Sullentrop knows how to tell one. Mary Jane Getken, Ann Buchheit, and Sue Stueber as well as their dates enjoy a good laugh.

WHO'S NEXT ON MY LIST . . . Irene Schumacher consults her program while Carol Becherer just looks on.

OUR DEAR ALMA MATER . . . Singing the class song are Mary Ann Stahl, Barb Hummel, Do Do Bauer, Liz Oesch, Carol Doerr, Peggy Hines, and Betty Drzewucki.

"NONE BETWIXT GOD AND ME?"
"BEHOLD, MY NEIGHBOR THEE,
UNTO HIS LOFTY THRONE
HE MAKES MY STEPPING-STONE."
—John Banister Tabb

SPORTS

CHEERLEADERS GENEROUSLY

OOOOH . . . Carol Becherer catches a fly (ball, of course.)

YEA, INCARNATE! . . . Laurie Renner and Sue Waldbart prove useful as well as pretty at the very exciting ball games.

ANYTHING FOR A NOVEL FORMATION . . . Marry Pat Boedeker, Sue Waldbart, Cathy Roe, Laurie Renner, and Kathi Kreikemeier are the Junior and Senior members of the Cheerleading squad.

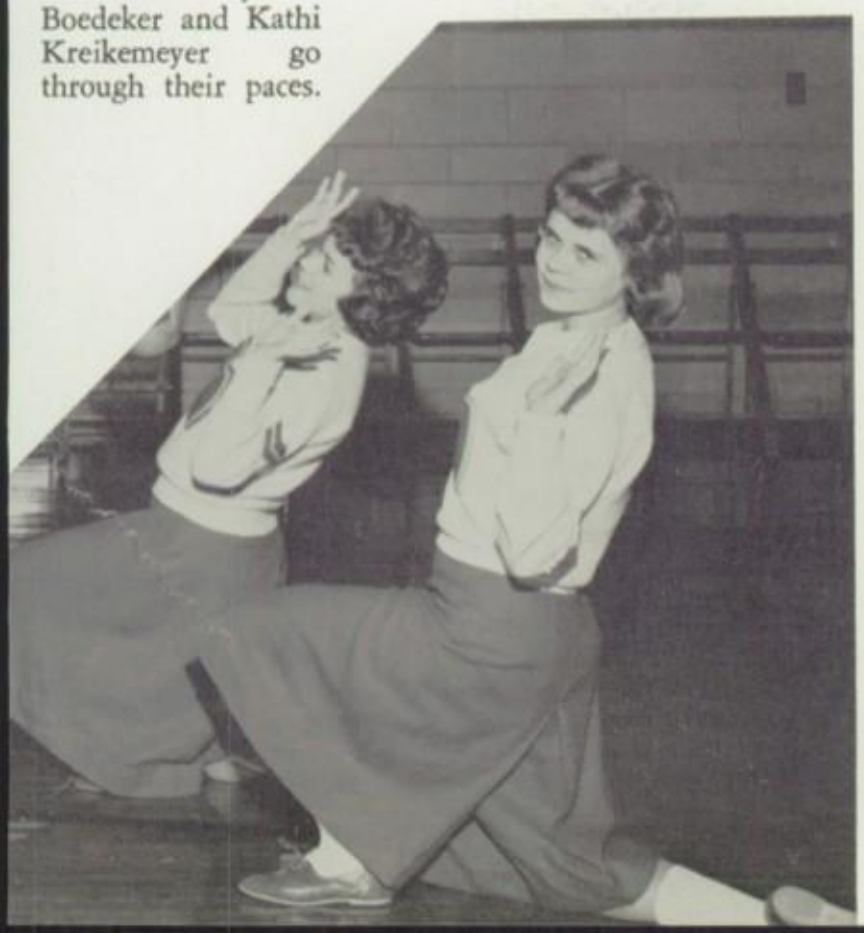
GIVE OF THEIR TIME AND TALENT

Practicing several hours a week keeps our expert cheerleaders among the best in the city.

GRIN AND SHARE IT . . . Ann Amantea and Rosemary Cavataio are very interested spectators.

SENIOR STAR . . . Barbara Hummel is a member of the volleyball varsity.

WE WANT VICTORY! Mary Pat Boedeker and Kathi Kreikemeyer go through their paces.



BASKETBALL TEAM HAS

HIGH JUMP . . . Ann Renner and Sheila O'Donnel match agility while Maryalice Kelly waits for the ball to come her way.

"FIGHT, TEAM, FIGHT!" yell Jackie Meyer, Barbara Bielicke, and Mary Ann Canavan as they practice their favorite extracurricular role.

TOP COACH

Miss Alta Royal with her easy manner and expert basketball know-how, has become a favorite among the girls at Incarnate Word Academy, and a force to be reckoned with among the teams we play.

HOURS OF PRACTICE ADD UP TO VICTORY . . . In a typical after school practice we see Imogene Dwyer, Betty Scheppers, Mary Beth Studt, Judy Higgins, Francene Duepner, Pat Glynn, Margaret Eschbacher, Dot Beelmann, Kathy Walsh, Kathy McDermott, and Sylvia Karwoski.

THE SCORE WASN'T ALL THE STORY

"ALL THAT YOU DO, DO WITH ALL YOUR MIGHT" may well be the motto of Carol Frye who has long been a star of the IWA basketball varsity.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT and so we conclude that Judy Brncic has put in long and careful hours of practice at volley ball because she is truly an expert.

THE GAME WAS EXHILARATING as can readily be seen from the expressions on the faces of Sue White, Marilyn Gardner, Joan Ohler, Susan Kenny, Betty Naber, Mary Lewis, Kathy Anthonis, Madonna Maloney, Judy Frick, Pat Murphy, Joan Abeln, Susan Roeder, Judy Kercheval, Beth Scott, Nancy Foy, and Judy Zimmermann.

WE ARE WITH YOU WHETHER YOU LOSE . . . Laurie Renner and Ann Amantea sympathize with the losers and hope for better things.

. . . OR WIN . . . They rejoice and applaud every success of their favorite team. Most of the time they were applauding!

VICTORY FOLLOWED INTENSE PRACTICE

WATCH OUT! Lois Ernst puts much force behind the ball.

RAH, RAH, RAH . . . Susan Donnelly and Nancy Brunnert would not miss a game if they could at all make it. Their spirits rise and fall with the scores of their favorite team.

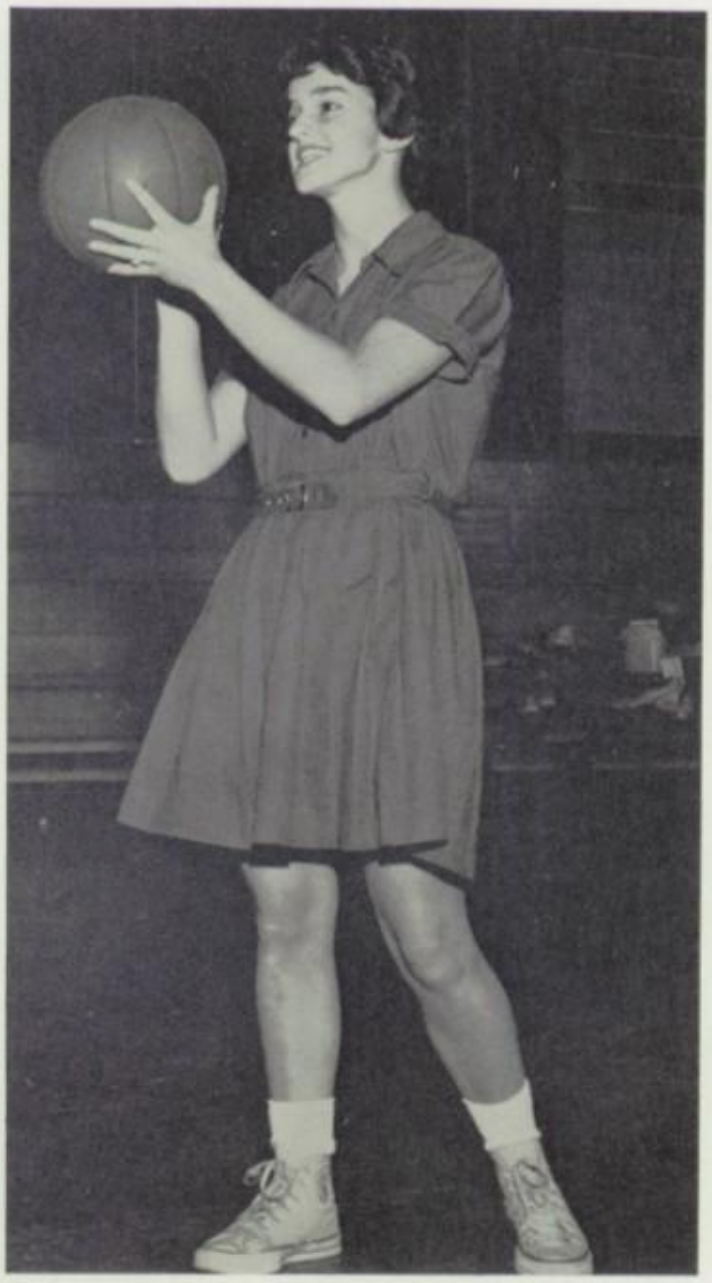
DoDo Bauer

Pat Knittel

Sharon Polzin

Much of our character training lies in the stimulation, direction and release of creative energies. The varsity programs under the direction of Miss Royal and Miss Hannefin offer many opportunities for the development of character through participation in competitive sports.

SELF ASSURED, Mary Virginia Dwyer gets all set to make a basket.



GRIT YOUR TEETH and measure the distance and you cannot fail to succeed. Pat Glynn shows how it is done.

NO ANXIETY HERE . . . Kathy Kelley, Dot Beelman, and Judi Schafers seem pretty confident that their team mates are in good playing condition.

BASKETBALL PROMOTES SCHOOL SPIRIT

BIG GAME is what these varsity members are aiming for. For this they spend hours in practice and take the whole thing very seriously. Irene Breneisen is a freshman and she is able to hold her own against veterans, Kathy Kelley and Lois Ernst.

WAITING THEIR TURN TO PRACTICE SHOOTING BASKETS are Maryalice Kelly, Angie Luby, Kathy Kelley, Marene Vandeven, Sheila O'Donnell, Pat Glynn, Ann Renner, and Sharon Polzin watch Lois Ernst and Pat Knittel.

Betty Scheppers

Imogene Dwyer

Sandy Feld

WORK AND PLAY COMBINED . . . Dot Beelman and Sharon Polzin are very faithful to their practice schedules.

MEET THE EXPERT of seeing what is in front while looking back . . . Joan Hummel.

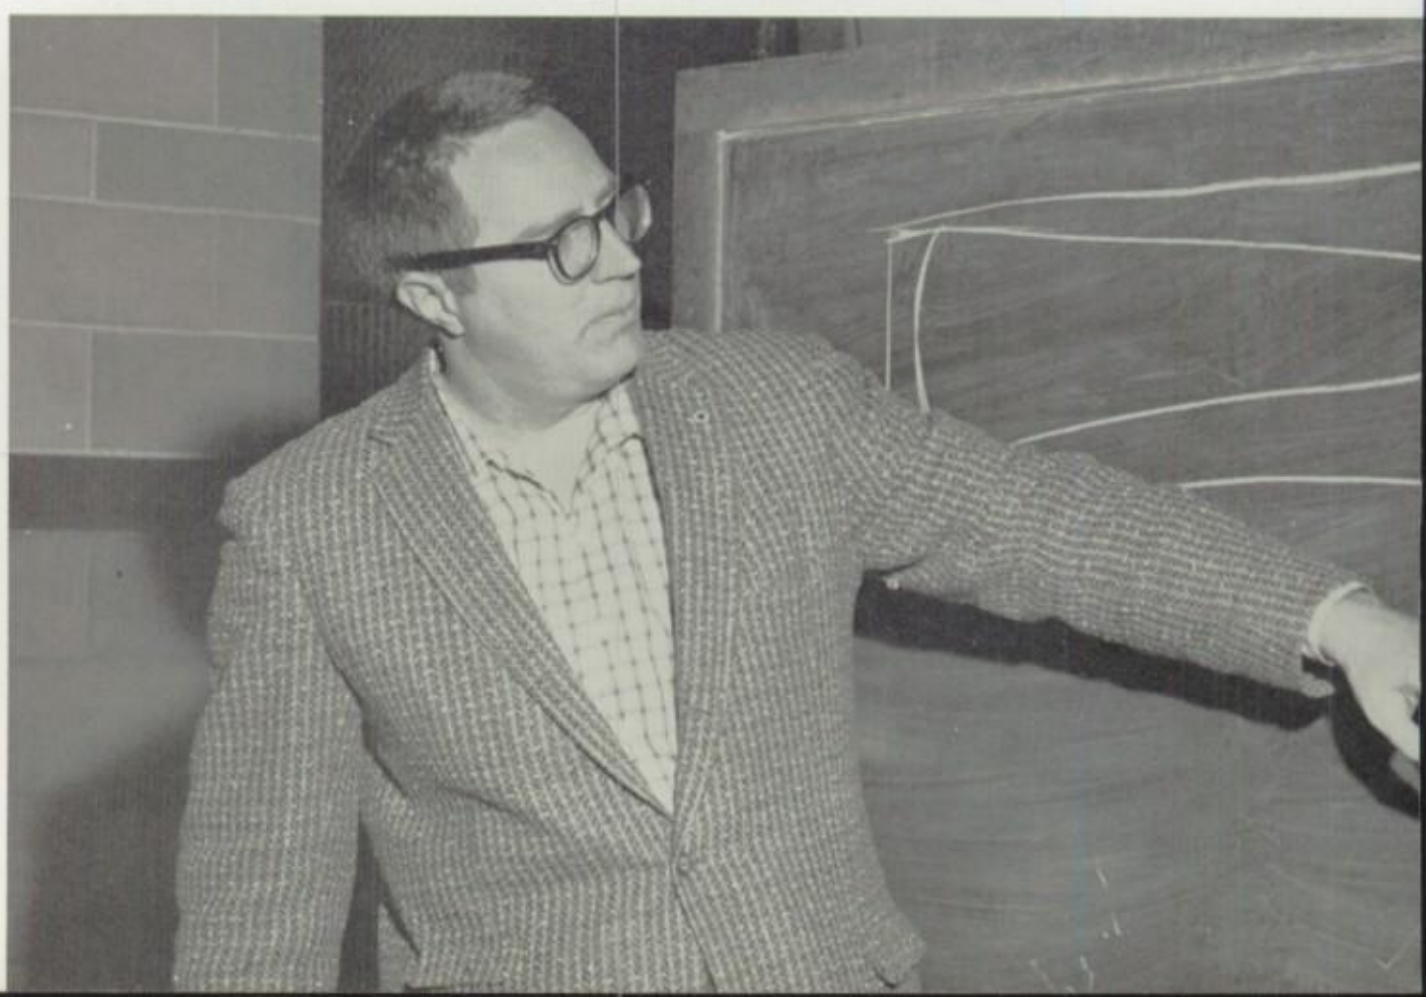
CLUBS

SCIENCE CLUB MEMBERS

WHEN THE LEAVES FELL the Science Club staged a rake party. Among the leaf burners and marshmallow toasters were: Peggy Hines, Barb Hartman, Pat Steinlage, Sue Waldbart, Pat Glynn, Mary Lowery, Joanne Tongay, Mary Rick, Sue Luechtefeld, Nancy Brunnert, Carol Donnelly, Vicki McCormack, Judy Joyce, Dot Beelman, and Mary Ann Miele.



AMATEUR ASTRONOMER, MR. BEST was on hand to speak on the fascinating subject—the stars. He told of the birth and life cycle of a star. Later a look through the telescope revealed wonders to the members of the club.

SEARCH NATURE'S SECRETS

It takes very little effort to stimulate interest in things relating to science. The IWA Science Club, under the sponsorship of Sister Reparata aims to give the members an abiding interest in the study of science. This club prides itself on the fact that all its meetings are exciting and mentally profitable.

Among the projects sponsored by the Science Club is the annual rake party, at which leaves are raked together, burned, . . . marshmallows are toasted . . . stars are studied . . . plans are made to keep up the tradition of a rake party.

Science projects are prepared by several members of the Science Club, and these projects are entered in several science fairs. It has become a thing to be expected that these projects are rated high among those entered.

PETE THE PET of the Science Club obliges Sister Reparata by posing for his very first photograph.

GETTING READY FOR THE SCIENCE FAIR are Maureen Cleary, Jackie DuMont, and Pat Steinlage. These and other members of the Science Club prepared various projects for various science fairs. Sister Reparata was always on hand to help anyone who needed help.

CHRISTMAS IN OTHER LANDS

Christmas in other lands was the theme of the 1959 Home Room Beautiful contest.

One would hardly recognize the various home rooms so decorated were they. Now, home rooms no more but Swiss villages, French homes, Russian hamlets, and we even saw how Christmas was observed in some Asiatic countries.

The judges were hard pressed to know which rooms to award the prizes to. A senior room got first prize, a junior room, second prize, and a sophomore room got third prize. Their ability evidently improves a step at a time.

We wish we could let you see all the room in picture, but our space is too limited.

The Home Room Beautiful contest is sponsored by the Art Club.

THIRD PRIZE is awarded to Sophomore Room 1, and the prize is accepted by Jane Werner from Judy Schmitt.

SWITZERLAND was the country chosen by the Seniors in Room 301. They won the first prize. Here we see Margot Mellies, Carol Lueke, Deanna Miller, and Carol Pallardy pose with some of their handiwork.

ORIENTAL CHRISTMAS . . . Japan was the country chosen by a Junior room. Donna O'Connor gives the prize to Mary Ellen

IS THEME OF 1959 HOME ROOM BEAUTIFUL CONTEST

FIRST PRIZE WINNER was Sister Mary of the Assumption's home room. Margot Mellies receives the beautiful statue of St. Joseph from Julianne Eggering and Lynn Johnson, officers of the Art Club.

Clarkin, who is the ome room representa- ive.

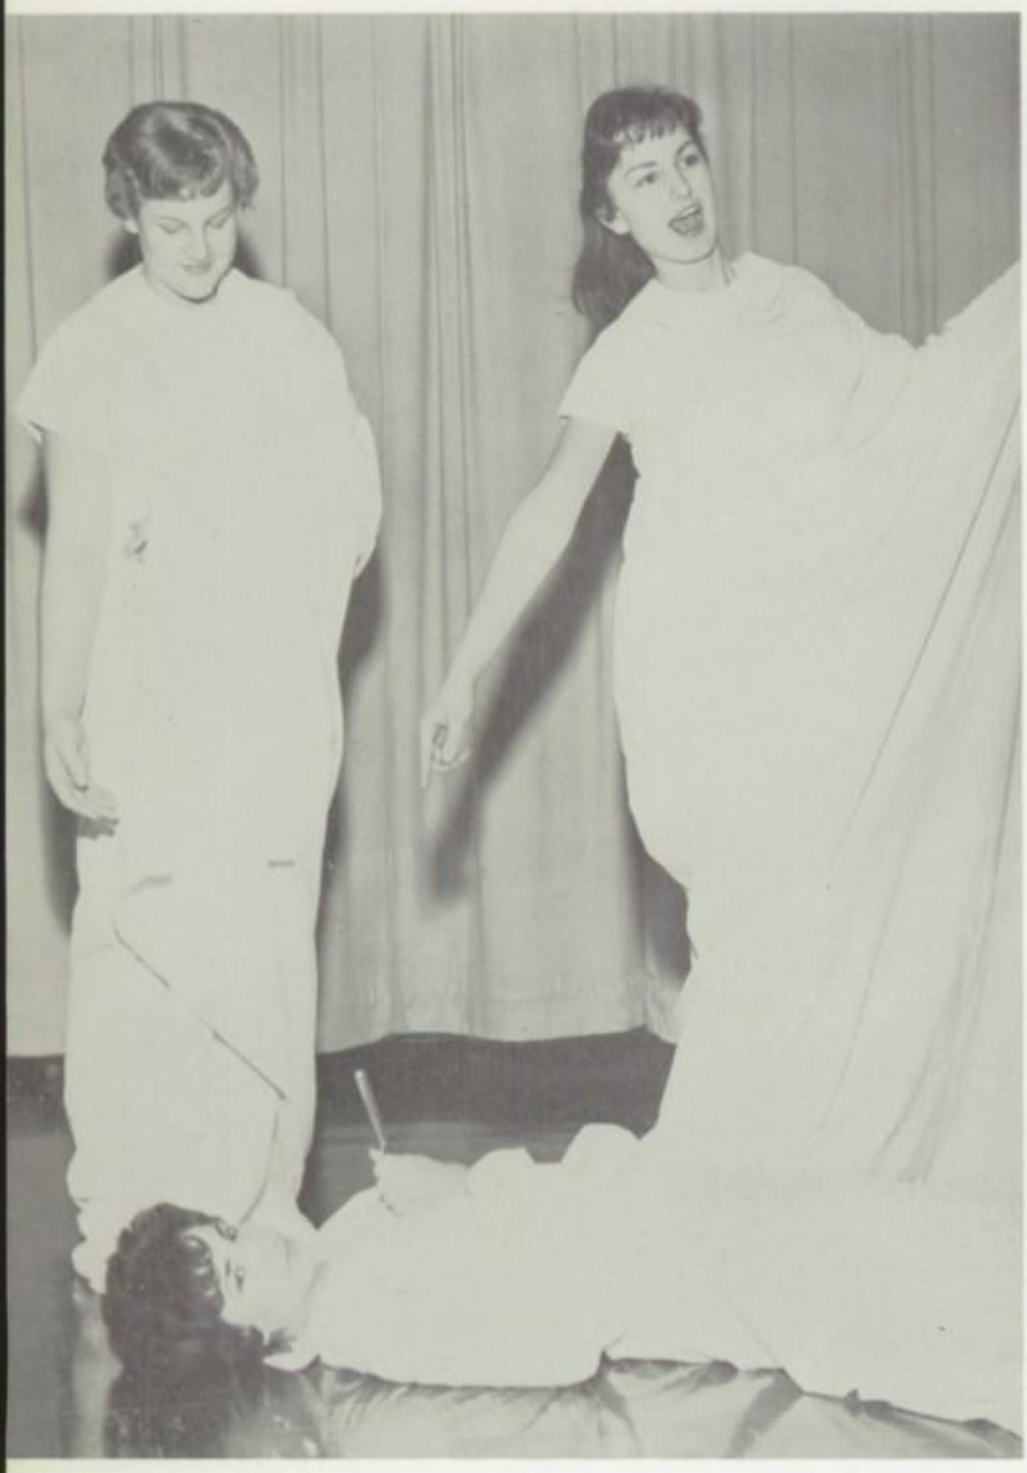
CAESAR DIES AGAIN



The Junior Classical League IWA Chapter had a rollicking time at the initiation of new members this year. They did a skit about the death of Julius Caesar. Pompey's statue was not in view, but Caesar died at the foot of Marene Vandeven instead. Mary Jo Barnstead decided that dead men have their eyes open, so that explains why the dead Caesar looks so much alive.

Miss Doering is the sponsor of the JCL.

"THE EVIL THAT MEN DO LIVES AFTER THEM" declaims Mary Ann Holmes as Mark Anthony. Marene Vandeven is an onlooker, and Caesar is portrayed by Mary Jo Zirbas.

FRESHMAN Barbara Shearer is pinned by Susan Donnelly. She is now a bona fide member of the IWA chapter of the Junior Classical League.

EVERYTHING IS NEW TO FRESHMEN and so Joanne Cavataio, Lois Farley, Barbara Norton, and Nancy Alsmeyer, take a look at the IWAJCL Charter.

PROVERBS IN LATIN help students in learning this classical language. Charlene Lesniak, Anne Cordes, Cathy Marischen, Beverly Braun, and Joan Sickman spell out proverbs in Latin.

"ET TU, BRUTE." No doubt about it at all, they do look bloodthirsty but actually they are very gentle. They are; Janet Bier, Carol Kinkel, Lucia Signorelli, and Pat Crowley.

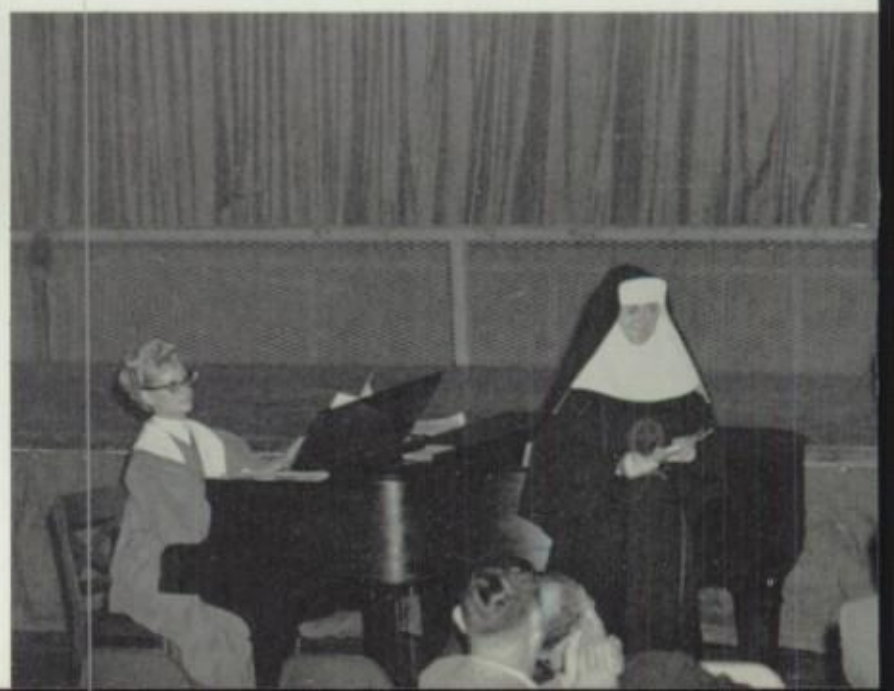
STATUES OF ROMAN GLADIATORS are examined by Mary Whittington, Susan Keim, Sharon Smyth, Maureen Murphy, and Johanna Mansker.

MARIAN CHORISTERS AND WORLD MISSIONERS BELIEVE IN

AT THE CHRISTMAS PARTY the Marian Choristers under the direction of Sister Mary Francis entertained the faculty and student body with many favorite Carols. Nancy Alsmeyer, S. Gueck, C. Hermann, M. Fague, S. Verble, S. Donnelly, Pat Shanahan, M. French, M. Woods, B. Vogel, N. Foy, C. Zorn, J. Ohler, R. Cavataio, B. Naber, P. Nowicki, L. Signorelli, D. Gibbons, J. Werner, L. Prouhet, M. Lewis, C. Weber, M. O'Connell, B. Moellmann, Lois Farley, K. Merritt, C. Mayo, E. McKenzie, R. Zorn, J. Tangay, D. Williams, C. Michuda, V. McCormack, N. Mellies, J. Murray, S. Gibbons, M. Lowery, B. Allhoff, C. Lyles, and J. Krummenacher.

AT THE KIWANIS CLUB CONVENTION . . . Group of Marian Choristers did a number for the entertainment of the delegates.

WE GO A CAROLING . . . Chris Polak, Ellie McKenzie, Jackie Julius, Jackie Shields, Sue Gueck, Barbara Allhoff, Karen Merritt, Cathy Lyles, Pat Shannahan, Sharon Gibbons, Margot Mellies, Joanne Murray, and Rita Mulligan spread Christmas cheer by their caroling.



SPREADING HAPPINESS

CERTIFICATES OF MEMBERSHIP in the Daily World Missioners have been awarded to Velja Souders, Mary Sadowski, Donna Sauerwein, and Sharon Scott.

TO HELP THE MISSIONS by prayer and sacrifice is the aim of the Freshmen pictured here: Marilyn Spiess, Rose Ann Waldorf, Mary Whittington, Barbara Shearer, Dianne Zoeller, Sharon Smyth, and Pat Sweeney.

Jackie Julius accompanied the Choristers as they sang at the Kiwanis Convention.

MARY JO BARNSTEAD, one of the four highest ranking students from IWA in the National Merit Scholarship Examination, and winner of a certificate of merit.

MARILYN JANNING, vice-president of the Science Club for two successive years, also finds time to help the unfortunate in her role as candy striper.

MARILYN MONIHAN, a young lady of many outstanding qualities, is Prefect of the Sodality, and Prom reporter. She ranks first in her class, and is always friendly and courteous.

HONOR SOCIETY MEMBERS ARE JUSTLY PROUD

Any Incarnate Word Academy girl would be honored and proud to be elected into the school's chapter of the National Honor Society. Membership is limited to Juniors and Seniors who maintain an average of B over the first two and a half years of high school in the case of Juniors and a continuance of this pattern of study during the remainder of the third year and the first semester of the fourth year. Failure to keep up this scholastic average means that a member is dropped from the NHS roster.

Besides being eligible scholastically the prospective member must be of definite service to her school, be a leader, and have a good character rating.

Miss Barbara Doering is the moderator of the National Honor Society at IWA.

MISS BARBARA DOERING faculty moderator of the IWA Chapter of the National Honor Society.

KAREN MERRITT, President of the IWA Chapter of the National Honor Society. During her four years at Incarnate she has marked up to her credit various honors such as the Dr. Warsley award, and has still found time to work with almost every club and association on the campus.

STUDY PAYS DIVIDENDS

JACKIE JULIUS, President of the Glee Club, is a proof that the Honor Society members are the school's leaders. She was a class officer during her freshman year, has been on the school newspaper staff for four years, belonged to the Latin Club, Sodality, World Missioners, Athletic Club, Bowling Club, and Student Council.

JUDY SCHAEFER might make her own the words of Edison, "I never did anything worth doing by accident, . . . every (success) came by work."

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY MEMBERS RESPECTED

JOANN ROBERTS, the most studious girl at IWA could well remember the saying of Cicero, "There are more men ennobled by study than by nature." However Joann has achieved nobility by study and has added it to her natural inborn, nobility.

BARBARA ALLHOFF, receiver of honors at the Mark Twain Summer Institute, of the highest score in the Mathematics Contest, of commendation from the National Merit Program, has also managed to be an officer of various clubs and associations over the four years of high school.

SENIORS IN N.H.S. SET EXAMPLE OF SCHOLARSHIP

Probably the most highly respected students on the campus are the members of the National Honor Society. Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Honor, are the characteristics they must possess to become members of this exclusive group.

MARGARET MUDD, Miss Courtesy of the Senior Class, is always among the top group in her class. It is a pleasure to know her, because she has learned that "Politeness is,— to do and say the kindest thing in the kindest way."

MAUREEN CLEARY, President of the Science Club, is a merit certificate winner and among the top one per cent of U.S. seniors.

CHARLENE ROWINSKI, Co-Editor of the school newspaper, PROM reporter, and an officer of the National Honor Society, is also endowed with many qualities that determine the noble woman.

MIMI CANTWELL, top rating IWA girl in the National Merit Scholarship examination, is a joy to teachers and a wonder to her companions.

IRENE SCHUMACHER manages to keep her position in the National Honor Society in spite of a heavy scholastic schedule in addition to holding down a job after school hours.

KARÈN POVICH, President of the Student Council, has managed to hold various offices during her years at IWA. She was class president during her sophomore and junior years.

STUDENT COUNCIL IS LINK

FROZEN ASSETS . . . The temperature was about 10°, and so we can think of these senior Student Council members as martyrs in the cause of the yearbook. They are: Myrt Monahan, Mary Ann Stahl, Charlene Rowinski, Maureen Cleary, Pat Connolly, Dianne Campo, Karen Merritt, Karen Povich, Donna Mitulski, Mary Beth Collier, Mary Lee Tenge, Jeanne Moellering, Judy Elder, Jackie Julius, Florence Buescher, and Mary Jo Barnstead.

GOOD MORNING! is Prexy Karen Povich's daily greeting to the student body.

THE HOPE OF THE FUTURE . . . Freshmen and Sophomore SC's Nancy Michel, Mary Jo Schuermann, Mary K. Murphy, Ann Renner, Sheila O'Donnell, Joan Newton, Sue Thornton, Beverly Braun, and Mary Ann Canavan.

BETWEEN FACULTY AND STUDENTS

SNACK BAR PATRONS . . To gain new energy to carry on in their capacity as Student Council officers Juniors Joanne Tongay, Judy Schafers, Theresa Steiniger, Vicki McCormack, Pat Glynn, Donna Gibbons, and Mary Jeanne Gertken wait in line to stock up on candy.

"I SPEAK FOR DEMOCRACY" . . . Mary Jo Barnstead, an active S.C. member gave a speech in the "I Speak For Democracy" contest.

AN ASSEMBLY IS PLANNED by Sister Louis Katherine and the officers of the Student Council: Sharon Gibbons, Vicki McCormick, Mary Ann Stahl, and Karen Povich.

HIGHLIGHTS OF 1959-60 PRESENTED BY

IWA's twenty-eighth yearbook THE LIGHT is brought to you by the concerted efforts of a hard working staff who sacrificed time and leisure, time and time again, to get the routine work done ahead of the ever pressing deadlines.

Now, the finished product is yours and we hope you will enjoy it for many years to come.

Editor-in-chief	Florence Buescher
Senior Editor	Mary Jo Barnstead
Typist	Judy Schmitt
Layout Editor	Peggy Simpson
Junior Editors	Sue Luechtefeld
	Mary Lowery
Sophomore Editors	Sheila O'Donnell
	Kathy Henry
	Chris Weitkamp

IN CHARGE OF INDEX . . . Mary Lowery and Sue Luechtefeld make sure that every student in the school appears at least once in picture and in name.

ONE OF THE SERVICES that Judy Schmitt renders is the typing of script.

SORTING SENIOR PORTRAITS, and checking layouts as well as proofreading is routine for Peggy Simpson.

YEARBOOK STAFF

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF, Florence Buescher discovers that even if you are the boss you cannot have everything your own way. There are always fellow staff members lined up with the opposition—to say nothing of the Moderator!

SENIOR EDITOR, Mary Jo Barnstead is general script writer for THE LIGHT. Appropriate quotations to accompany Senior portraits were culled by Mary Jo from the various literary giants.

SOPHOMORE SECTION IS SHAPED by Sheila O'Donnell, Chris Wietkamp, and Kathy Henry. (below right)

STAFF AND MODERATOR . . . Mary Lowery, Sue Luechtefeld, Peggy Simpson, Judy Schmitt, Kathy Henry, Florence Buescher, Sister Teresa Joseph, and Mary Jo Barnstead.

LEARNING ON THE JOB are these Sophomores and Freshmen who are cub reporters. They are: Kathy Foster, Sharon Hummel, Mary Jo Schuermann, Kathy Slaus, Lucia Signorelli, Marilyn Tiemeyer, Carol Kinkel, Angie Luby, Sheila O'Donnell, Cathy Marischen, Barbara Blatz, Jane Werner, Jackie Meyer, and Beth Mayo.

READ ALL ABOUT IT! The circulation managers, Jonna Roche, Marian Huelsman, Kathy Dowl, Mary Alice Weber, and Susan Campbell.

NEWSPAPER STAFF

THE BIG BRASS . . . Co-editors, Mary Jeanne Gertken and Charlene Rowinski discuss their problems with assistant editor Ellie McKenzie.

GETTING IT READY for the printer . . . Carole Frye and Dot Muehling type up copy for the printer.

REPORTERS . . . Ann Amantea, Nancee Schubert, Rosemary Cavataio, Rita Zorn, Joann Tongay, Tina Tucker, Gail Miller, and Marilyn Monahan listen attentively to what Jackie Julius has to say.

SODALITY AND LEGION

Two organizations under the patronage of Our Blessed Lady, the Sodality and the Legion of Mary are adept at making their presence felt in the whole student body. The aim of the Sodality is the personal sanctification of its members and through them to reach others so as so be helpful in bringing Christ to many others also.

At IWA the Legion is sponsored by Sister Patrick Joseph and the Sodality by Mother Ann Bernard.

MAY DAY is observed by the Sodality as a day specially dedicated to Mary. Here Marilyn Monihan, Sodality Prefect crowns the statue of Our Lady. Helen Perdue is the crown bearer.

PRAYER BEGINS AND ENDS all Legion of Mary meetings. Mary Ann Spurlock, Sharon Hummel, Susan Crowe, Margie Kemp are among those seen in the picture.

OF MARY DEDICATED TO SERVICE

WITH EYES ON THE LEGION'S SYMBOL Sharon Hummel, Susan Crowe, Mary Kay Brenner, Mary Frances Holtgrewe, Mary Ann Spurlock, Kathy Foster, Kathleen O'Shaughnessy, and Mary Jo Barnstead wait for the beginning of one of their weekly meetings.

OFFICERS OF THE LEGION OF MARY, Carol Becherer, Margie Kemp, Jeannie Riegel, and Sue Stueber work on the agenda for the next meeting.

TO JESUS THROUGH MARY!

SODALITY'S AIM . . .

MARY, Queen of Sodalists

TO
MARY!

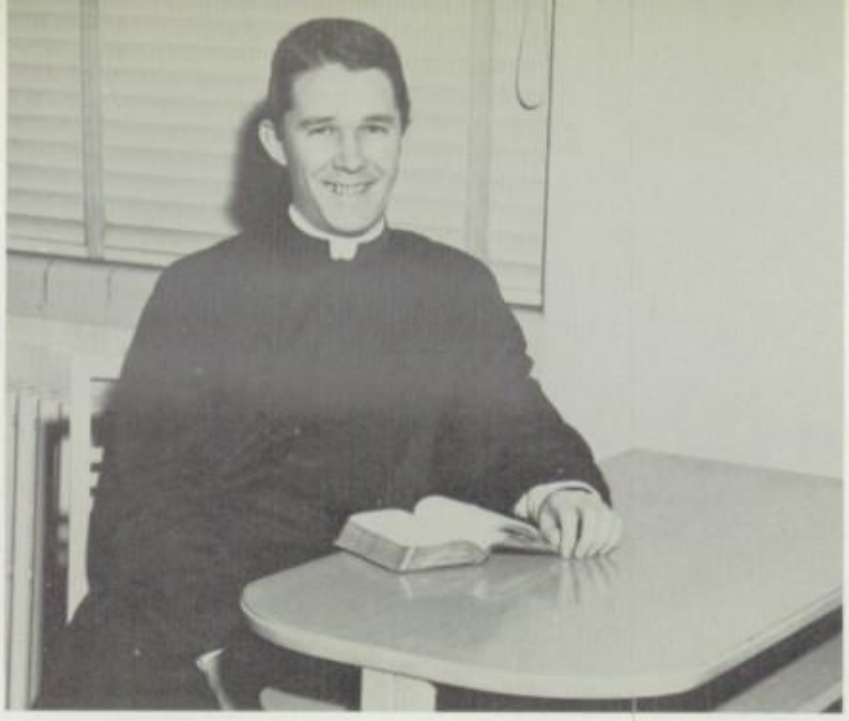
CENTRAL COUNCIL MEETING is held once every month. The four major officers meet with the Moderator to plan the month's work and check on past performance. Mother Ann Bernard is the Moderator, Myrt Monahan, Dodo Bauer, Helen Perdue, and Therese Kickam are the officers.

SORTING MAGAZINES FOR DISTRIBUTION to various institutions are Sophomore Sodalists—Glenda Hudson, Carol Kinkel, Ruth Knopf, Marian Huelsman, Kathy Collier, Cathy Cline, Jane Brosnan, Barbara Littlefield, Mary Behrens, Susan Crump, Mary Jane Duffy, Daria Gagliardi, Kathy Fox, Kathy Henry, Carol Feld, April Battisto, and Judy Frankowski.

FORMING OUTSTANDING CATHOLICS

SENIOR SODALISTS . . . Mary Lee Tenge, Sandy Field, Barbara Allhoff, Pat O'Keefe, Donna Mitulski, Jackie Julius, Karen Merritt, Mary Alice Dailey, Carol Doerr, DoDo Bauer, Ellie McKenzie, and Marilyn Monahan, on their way to the Chapel to attend Mass.

EARLY FOR THEIR WEEKLY MEETING these Juniors have a minute to oblige the photographer and pose for a picture. They are: Joan Bean, Rita Mulligan, Vicki McCormack, Paula Picco, Rosemary Cavataio, Judy Schafers, Rita Zorn, Peggy Hill, Pat Glynn, Donna O'Connor, and Georgeann Moriarty.



SODALITY Director, Father Goeghegan is always on hand to help solve problems.

ROSARY TIME for Sophomores: Marilyn Tiemeyer, Betty Tobin, Chris Weitkamp, Beth Mayo, Sheila O'Donnell, Nancy Michel, Mary Totter, Karen Toulster, Kathy Slaus, Mimi Merritt, Lucia Signorelli, Angie Luby, and Carole Sickmann.

CHEERS FOR THE CANDY STRIPERS who give several hours of free service to various local hospitals every month. Some of the IWA Candy Stripers are: Sue Gueck, Carol Doerr, Carol Becherer, Sandy Feld, Marilyn Janning, and Mary Kay Schwarz.

BUILDER . . . SODALITY OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN

Whenever there is a good deed to be done there you will find the Sodalist. Remembering the obligation of the Christian to give service to the neighbor, the Sodalist will certainly be the first to serve.

UNDER THE GAZE OF MARY . . . Junior Sodalists Mary Grayce Pfister, Kathy Walsh, Pat Steinlage, Joann Tongay, Ann Amantea, Mary Sadowski, and Betty Stocke pause for their picture near the statue of their beloved patroness.

The Candy Stripers have a glorious history of voluntary service. Mary Lee Tenge, Pat O'Keefe, Mary Alice Dailey, and Mimi Solari.

NO MATTER HOW YOU LOOK at them, the Sodalists are an outstanding group of girls. Their way of life moulds them into people who aim for perfection in all they undertake. Here we have Susan Campbell, Joyce Talbot, Lynn Johnson, Mary Alice Weber, and Theresa Kickham.

BEAUTIFUL CLOTHES—BEAUTIFUL GIRLS . . . Pat Liese, Pat Glynn, and Martha Orzel are ready to take part in the style show.

CONTENTED AND PLEASED to be chosen to take part in the style show are Shari Polzin and Laurie Renner.

MODELING BRIDAL GOWNS . . . Sharon Reinsmidt and Diane Campo

YOUTH INCORPORATED STAGES STYLE SHOW

BEAUTY AND GRACE are qualities possessed by Jeannie Ahearn and Carolyn Delhougne who model some pretty gowns for a delighted audience.

"Beauty is a virtue" was the theme chosen by the Youth Incorporated Club for their 1959 Style Show. Mary Ann Stahl, wearing a ballerina length semi-formal, introduced each model and effectively described her attire.

The formals were supplied by LYNTONS LIMITED. Bouquets and corsages were provided by BOW KAY and ST. ANN'S florists.

Teachers, parents and appreciative fellow students made up the enthralled audience.

Strains of organ music, previously taped by Penny Neumann, filled the gym throughout the program.

BRIDESMAIDS WERE NOT FORGOTTEN . . . Louise Klumpers and Mary Poe.

Mary Jane Bradshaw.

The library is regarded as a haven for the student who wants a quiet place to study.

PRESIDENT AND MODERATOR . . . Mary Jeanne Gertken, president of the IWA library club consults with her moderator, Sister Mary Stephen, the school librarian. Mary Jeanne is also the president of the Student Library Guild of the greater St. Louis area.

KEEPING THE SHELVES IN ORDER is one of the many chores of the library club members. Here Susan Donnelly, Sharon Hummel, and Mary Kay Brenner do a demonstration for the photographer.

HOW DO I SIGN? . . . One of the duties that these very active club members attend to is the checking out of books. Here at the circulation desk are Ruth Overmann and Jonna Roche.

LIBRARY CLUB IS VERY SERVICE CONSCIOUS GROUP

THE NEW LOOK . . . Plastic book covers are the latest innovation in the library. Dorothy Sanning, Marine Vandeven, Marie French, and Mary Ann Spurlock enjoy working on this new phase of action.

COME TO THE FAIR!

THIS IS HOW YOU MAKE A SALE . . . Janet Bier gives a sample sales talk to April Battisto, Mary Totter, and Pamela Harle. They are apt pupils and they did wonders with the fair's sales.

Pat Crowley is one of the most dependable library club workers.

IT IS WHEN WE FORGET OURSELVES THAT WE DO THINGS THAT ARE REMEMBERED.

CURRICULUM

WHO WINS THIS ARGUMENT? . . . Just doing an act are Barbara Hummel, Mary Lee Tenge, and Mary Jo Quinn.

SENIORS LEARN TO

Seniors have the privilege of electing to take speech and drama, and as many as possibly can, do try to squeeze it in.

Besides being a relaxing class, it is also one in which one learns a number of most important facts. . . . Drama students learn poise and self reliance . . . They learn how to move about gracefully!

The complement of the drama class is the speech class where the young lady learns how to modulate her voice . . . how to speak distinctly and clearly . . . how to control the muscles and the breathing in order to use the human voice in the way that the Creator intended that it should be used.

Sister Joseph Alphonsus is the teacher in this department.

PUBLIC SPEAKING CLASS: M. A. Stahl, C. Roe, M. J. Au-Buchon, L. Kluempers, M. Thiemet, B. Sheppers, L. Oesch, K. Lesniak, G. Taucher, M. Dailey, S. Porzel, P. O'Keefe, K. Shelvy, S. Narkiewiez, B. Barbour, M. Baker, M. Miele, E. Chott, P. Abeln, K. Merritt J. Moelering, B. Wieck, L. Smith, S. Feld, M. Sheridan, C. Becherer, C. Piel, D. Zimmermann, D. Huelsman, F. Whitelaw, C. Hertfelder, L. Kienstra, and I. Dwyer.

SPEAK AND ACT

DRAMA CLASS . . . J. Schmitt, M. Barnstead, K. Costello, S. George, J. Shields, M. Tenge, B. Hummel, P. Neumann, C. Doerr, G. Dwyer, P. Knittel, S. Layton, J. Murray, M. Janning, M. Quinn, M. Hepburn, S. Kohler, P. Connelly, F. Buescher, L. Ernst, J. Pohlmann, P. Wabhy, J. Free.

NO PLACE FOR "DO-IT-YOURSELF" . . . Sue Kohler does a really expert job on making up Judy Schmitt as Bartley Fallon in the dramatics class production of "Spreading the News".

A—E—I—O—U . . . Mary Jo AuBuchon limbers up her vocal chords and auxiliary muscles so that her speaking voice will be one you will want to listen to.

RELIGION COURSES ARE THE

THE MOST IMPORTANT STUDY at IWA is the study of Religion. All four years have their own specified curriculum to be followed. The well rounded Catholic is the result. Identifiable seniors in this picture are: Carol Mayo, Jeannie Moellering, Joanne Murray, Pat McDonnell, Barb Hummel, Cissy Eder, Judy Elder, Virginia Langhorst, Joanne Maruska, and Karen Merritt.

Cathy Cline, Kathleen Collier, Frances Clooney, and Mary Croak do some Bible study.

MAINSPRING OF THE CURRICULUM AT IWA

A LITTLE INDIVIDUAL HELP goes a long way to clear up some problems. Sister Joseph Alphonsus, who teaches a section of Junior Religion is helping Carole Bradley and Claire Cummings to understand some point that seemed obscure.

Francene Duepner, Pam Hampton, Barb Frain, Bette Ebeling, and Carolyn Carson take part in the Advent prayers.

"HISTORY IS PHILOSOPHY TEACHING BY EXAMPLE" — BOLINGBROKE

AMERICAN PROBLEMS CLASS under the direction of Sister Cordula have many very interesting discussions. Here Jeanne Connelly, Charlotte Rancilio, Jackie Free, Sue Kohler, and Barbara Vogel continue the discussion after class.

WE ARE PROUD TO BE AMERICANS and these American History students enjoy tracing the historical development of our country. Barbara Chadduck, Joyce Dobbin, Sue Bohn, Mary Pat Boedeker, and Barbara Bayer pose for a picture.

CIVICS CLASS PROJECTS . . . Citizenship in action is demonstrated by these Freshmen as they work on their various projects. Darlene Kobusch, Cheryl Krukenkamp, Marilyn Murray, Kathy O'Shaughnessy, and Mary Beth Studt.

"IT SAYS HERE ON THIS CHART . . ." says Pat McDowell to dubious onlookers Chris Polak and Rosemarie Schenk.

FRESHMEN LIKE TO HAVE TANGIBLE OBJECTS TO LEARN FROM . . . Cathy Hempstead, Eileen Brackmann, Linda Hoven, Marilyn Spiess, and Rosaline Stegeman learn about the balance between production and consumption.

STUDENTS OF WORLD HISTORY . . . Joan Ohler, Nancy Alsmeyer, Sue Aussieker, and Lois Farley enjoy a discussion about some incident in Medevial History.

CONSTANT AND

To keep the body healthy and thus make it a better instrument of the soul is the aim of the physical and health education classes. In these days when we do not get the exercise we need by walking like people in by-gone days did, we have need of daily planned exercise. As long as we are in school this is planned for us by a good physical education program.

Miss Royal and Miss Hannefin are the bosses in this department.

GETTING READY FOR CLASS are freshmen Sue Thornton and Joyce Kuelker.

CASEY ON THE TRAMPOLINE . . . This' is a favorit e exercise of many of the girls. Pat Casey is happily bouncing and being watched by Anne Cordes, Sharon Wood, a nd Dianne Zoeller.

STRENUOUS PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT

HEY, WAIT A MINUTE, WE PREFER TO HAVE OUR FACES TAKEN . . . Anne Cordes, Joanne Cavataio, Gloria Gerardot, and Gail Mueller caught in the act of getting the trampoline ready for use.

ONE, TWO, THREE, BEND . . . Freshmen do a hard exercise. We will identify as many as we can: Cathy Marischen, Mary Lou O'Connell, Jackie Coletta, Barbara Norton, Charlene Lesniak, Mary Ann Baumann, Joanne Cavataio, Irene Breneisen, Mary Ann Deere, Nancy Ridings, Sue Thornton, Patti Knopf.

"ART ALONE ENDURING STAYS WITH US"

ART CLUB MEMBERS FIXING CHRISTMAS CORSAGES . . . Nancy Kercheval, Carol Donnelly, Catherine Michuda, and Mary Ellen Nugent engage in a fund raising project for their favorite club.

SO SOOTHING . . . SO ELEVATING . . . Music Appreciation class is one that every Freshman looks forward to. We were able to picture only a few of them namely, Nancy Hartenberger, Jane Schmitt, Mary Alice Norman, Marilyn Woods, Sandra Klein, Susan Klevorn, and Pat Rodgers.

ART CLASS IS ABSORBINGLY INTERESTING . . . Judy Koehne, Rosemary Schumacher, Mary Cook, and Mary K. Brenner follow the directions in working out a very beautiful mosaic.

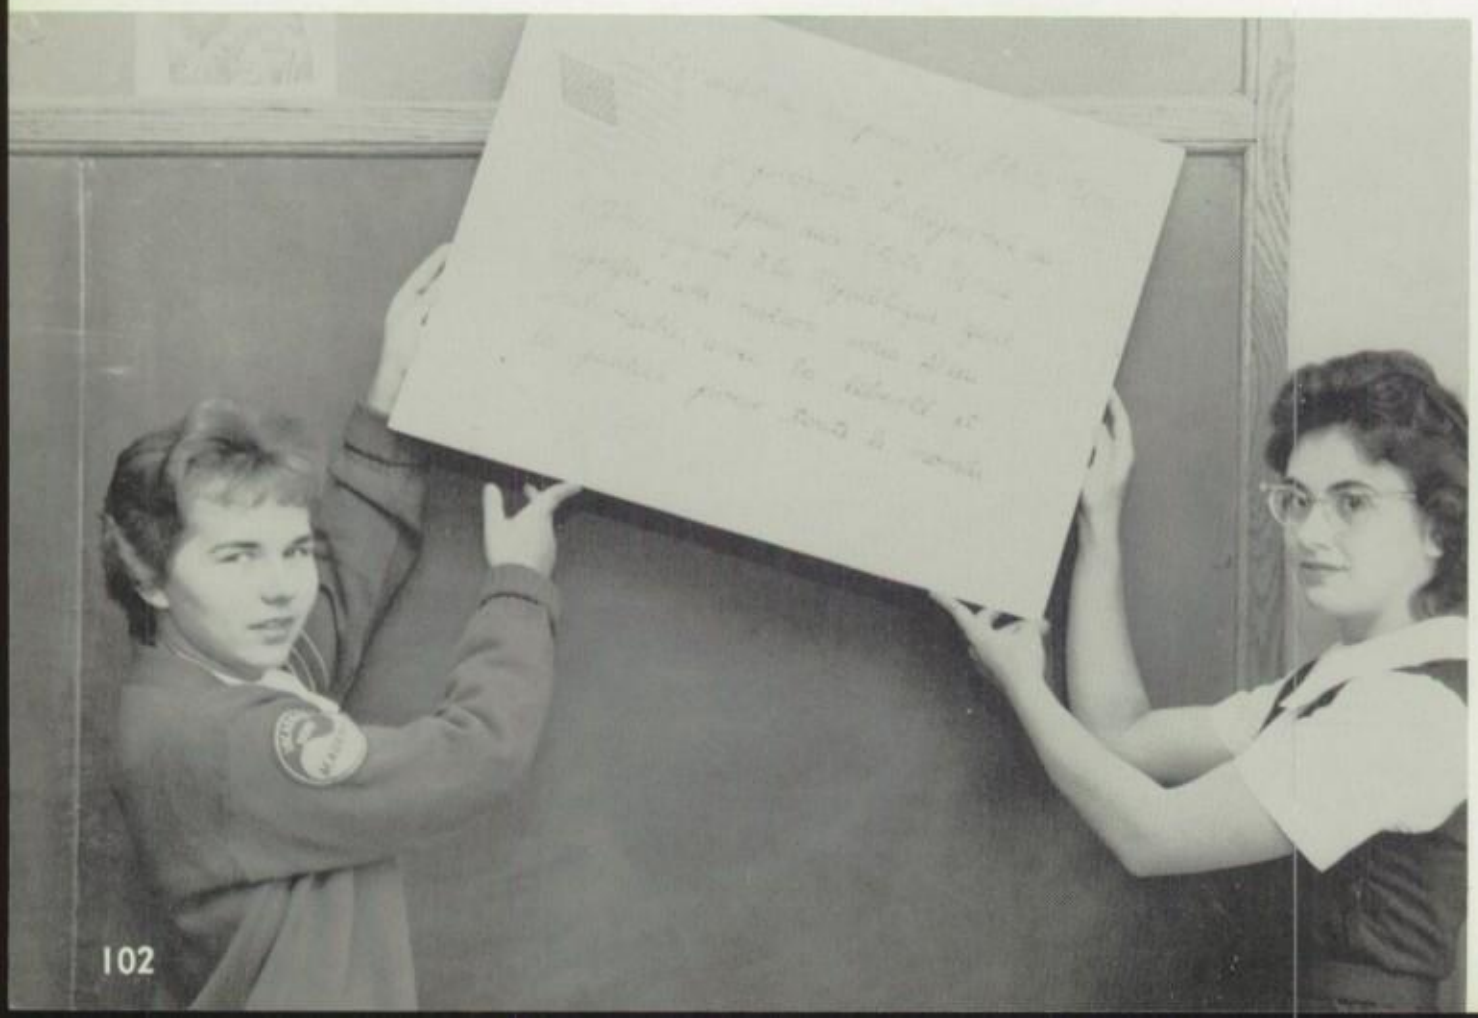
HOME ECONOMICS AND FRENCH CLASSES

"APPARELL'D LIKE THE SPRING" says Shakespeare, and to make this saying true in their case could well be the aim of Earlene Chott, Sandy Gregor, and Mary K. Shelvy.

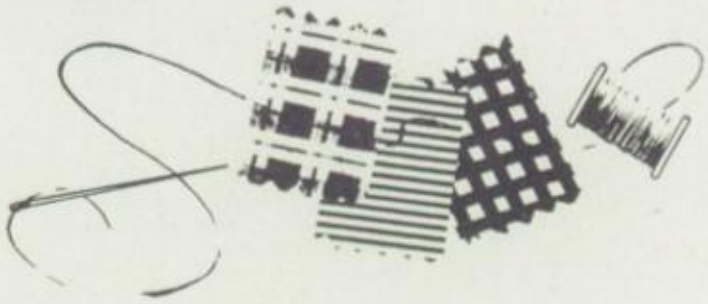
THESE TAKE DRESSMAKING SERIOUSLY . . . Sandy Louis, Mary Hepburn, and Carol Flaker can show some pretty dresses as a proof that they learned much in sewing class.

FLAG SALUTE IN FRENCH . . . Visual aids are very useful in the study of a foreign language. Sylvia Karwoski and Joanne Roberts make use of all the aids to successful learning.



DECEMBER 9 . . . In French it looks almost the same as in English. Ingrid Polzin finds that many words are alike.

AMONG IWA STUDENTS' FAVORITES



Sharon O'Neill gives a helping hand to her classmates.

COOKERY, A NOBLE SCIENCE . . . Mastering that science are Mary Frances Whitelaw, Donna Zimmermann, Judy Mike, and Mary Wieck. Here they are getting ready to make some delicious Christmas cookies.

DECEMBER 9 . . . Paula Picco counters with the correct English, word in a vocabulary practice.

NOW WE SHALL BE ABLE TO READ THE MENU when we eat out. Judy Joyce and Peggy Hill may never have had such a motive in taking French, but it does help.

THREE YEARS OF SPANISH

AND THEN THERE WERE NONE . . . We hope these freshmen will not meet with the fate of the little Indians of the rhyme. Sue Jaeger, Pat Bohannen, Palla DeClue, and Jackie Lonigro learn vocabulary in an interesting manner.

LLAMA SKIN RUG, Real too! Eileen Brackmann shows a souvenir of her years spent in Peru.

FLASH CARDS ARE USED BY FRESHMEN . . . Jane Schmitt, Pat Rodgers, Nancy Hortenergebr, and Maureen Martin study their verbs.

STUDIED AT INCARNATE WORD ACADEMY

GETTING READY FOR THE FEAST OF THE VIRGIN OF GUADALUPE . . . Judy Fister and Marilyn Walsh are third year Spanish students.

CUBA IS MUCH IN THE NEWS THESE DAYS and so the second year Spanish class take up the study of its customs and culture. Joan Klein, Mary Ann Giessmann, Janet Filla, Judy Frankowski, Glenda Hudson, and Carol Drescher are sophomore Spanish students.

THE SCHOOLMARM is Mary Ann Olsen.

LATIN STUDENTS KEEP THE FLAME AGLOW

WISE SOPHOMORES know that it is a smart move to sign up for Latin. They could give you all the reasons why they are taking Latin. Here Carol Kinkel, Mary Holtgrewe, Donna Gibbons, Joan Hummel, and Judy Higgins show that good students can also be good looking.

JUNIOR CLASSICAL SCHOLARS . . . Sue Bewig, Margie Harrington, Barbara Bayer, Peggy Hines, Sue Luechtefeld, Mary Jeanne Gertken, Claire Cummings, and Mary Pat Boedeker are among the wise Juniors who elected to take third year Latin.

WITH THEIR KNOWLEDGE

FOURTH YEAR OF LATIN . . . These seniors are able to read a magazine which is written entirely in Latin! Mary Jo Barnstead, Donna Mitulski, Jeanne Connelly, Barbara Allhoff, Pat McDonnell, Mimi Cantwell, and Charlene Rowinski enjoy the jokes in "Auxilium Latinum."

INTRODUCTION TO THE STUDY OF LATIN . . . Freshmen Linda Fennewald, Beverly Braun, Marguerite Graffigno, Kathy Floyd, Mary Rose Aiello, and Mary Fague are just getting used to the strange sound of Latin.

"LITERATURE IS THE THOUGHT OF

Four years of English are necessary for a girl to graduate from Incarnate Word Academy.

THE STUDY OF ENGLISH LITERATURE is one of the favorite exercises of these Seniors. Some of the class members are: Carol Doerr, Pat Connelly, Virginia Langhorst, Dot Huelsman, Barb Allhoff, Lois Ernest, Jean Connelly, Mimi Cantwell, Maureen Cleary, Judy Elder, Jackie Julius, Carol Becherer, Judy Brncic, Earlene Chott, Rosalie DiNoto.

Jeanne Hahn and Dolores Gessner get ready to give class reports.

THINKING SOULS" — CARLYLE

Sister M. Edwin, Sister Marietta, Sister Joseph Alphonsus, and Mrs. C. Paulson are the teachers in the English department.

FUTURE PROMISE . . . Their alma mater will keep her eyes on these Freshmen. Mary Grassmuck, Cathy Marischen, Donna Williams, Barbara Klump, Mary Ann Baumann and Mary Lou O'Connell had their essays published in a national anthology.

CERTIFICATES OF RECOGNITION are held by Mary Hildebrant, Ingrid Polzin, and Tina Tucker for their winning entries in an essay contest.

More Essay Experts!

WORDS LIKE "SINE",

Four years of mathematics are offered at IWA. Anyone with the necessary intelligence and will to work hard is eligible to try her luck. The rewards? A great sense of accomplishment—to mention only one.

For the girl who has this rare gift of an ability to understand mathematics it is a wise move to get all she can of this subject while she is in high school.

POSING WITH BOOKS AND PROBLEMS . . . Irma Koropecky, Sue Bewig, Tina Tucker, and Joanne Trost are students of second year algebra.

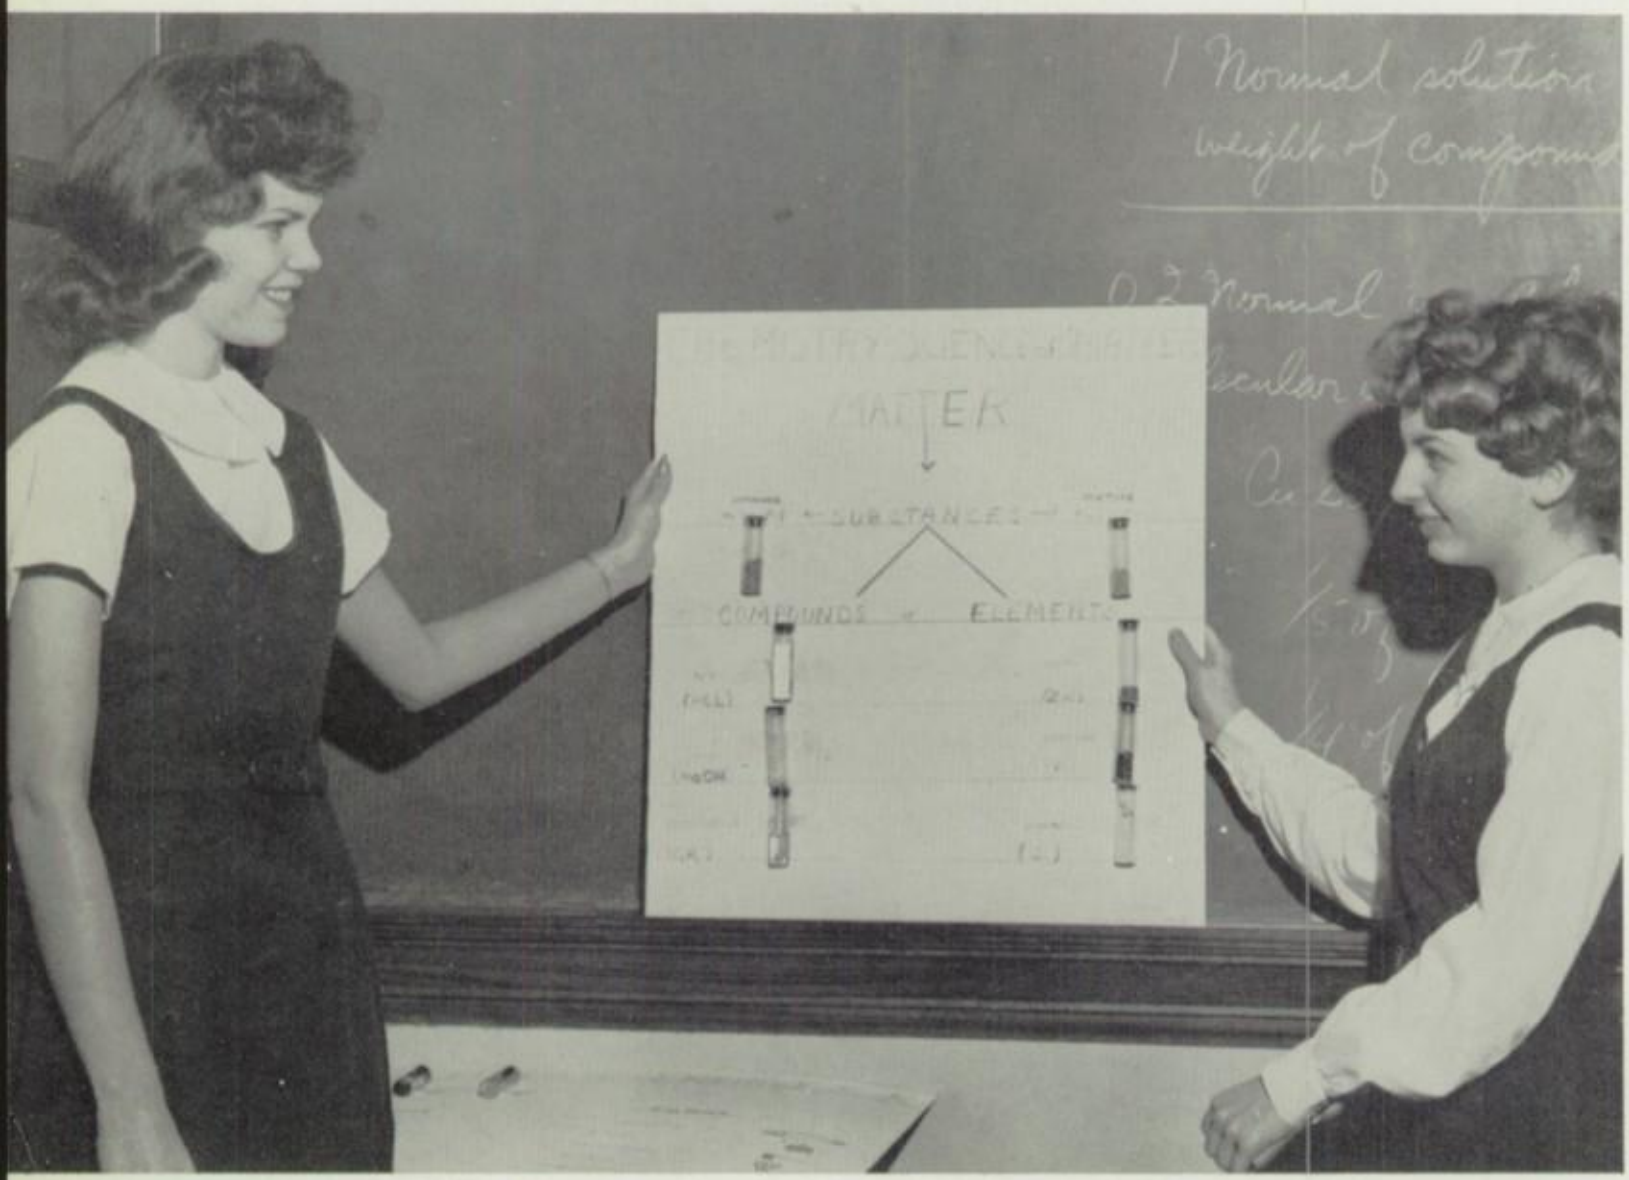
BLACKBOARD PRACTICE . . . Betty Pallardy, Susan Keim, June Perry, Marian Busch, and Vera Borgmeyer like a little standing practice occasionally.

AND "SETS" TELL YOU WHERE YOU ARE

CHALLENGING AND REWARDING are words that describe what Trigonometry is to those who can understand it. To the rest we shall not say what it is. Marilyn Janning, Jeannie Moellering, and Carol Lueke work hard and reap corresponding rewards.

GEOMETRY CAN STAND GETTING FIVE HEADS TOGETHER. Mary Jane Duffy, Jane Brosnan, Marian Huelsman, Kathy Foster, and Terry Siemer struggle with a problem.

SCIENCE STUDY ACQUIRES A NEW RESPECTABILITY



SCIENCE NEWS OF 1959

Hitting the moon and electronically photographing its hidden side were top achievements. Astronauts began training for flights into space.

WE LEARN MUCH BY CAREFUL LAB STUDY . . . Ann Buchheit and Marilee Zych show off some of the charts they make in their science projects.

BIOLOGY IS ALWAYS A MOST INTERESTING STUDY . . . Mary Ann Kuehl, Mary Hildebrant, Mary Jane Bradshaw, and Margie Harrington enjoy every minute of their class.

These are the days when our vocabulary has been enriched with many new words like "Satellites," "missiles," "outer space," "orbit" . . . to name only a few. We are told that in the next decade the wonders of space achievement will be stupendous, and we are warned that a knowledge of science will be necessary to live intelligently in the future. Here at IWA we are offered courses in biology and chemistry. Both these courses are popular with the students. Sister Reparata and Mr. Charles Paulson are the teachers in this department.

CAREFUL MEASUREMENTS are very necessary in science study. Sandy Feld is absorbed in her chemistry work.

OUR FEATHERED FRIENDS . . . these parakeets are the delight of the biology class. Their caretakers are Sue Stueber and Betty Stocke.

EFFICIENCY AND ACCURACY ARE BYWORDS

TECHNIQUE AND SPEED are kept always before these budding typists: Mary Ellen Knoll, Barbara Jones, Lynn Johnson, and Margaret Kemp.

NOW, THAT WAS EASY, WASN'T IT? . . . These seniors have a regular kit that really does wonders when it comes to doing the impossible, namely making arithmetic easy. Using the kit are Mary Jane Baker, Brenda Barbour, and Hank Chesnek.

OF BUSINESS CLASSES

Sister Mary of the Assumption is the director of the Business Education of Incarnate Word Academy. Juniors and Seniors are eligible to take typing, shorthand, and business English and math so that they will be ready to do secretarial work in case they do not wish to go to college—And who can deny the worth of thes ecourses to the college bound senior.

HELPING HER NEIGHBOR is Vivian Krebs who is a good shorthand student.

TAKING DICTATION like a trained stenographer is Sandy Voght.

IS THIS CORRECT, SISTER? Blackboard practice is a regular routine in shorthand classes. Here our photographer surprised Barbara Durso, Imogene Dwyer, and Karen Lesniak as they were engaged in a very pleasant exercise.

BARBARA ELAINE VOGEL
Barb

Be good, sweet maid, do noble things . . .
And so make life, death and that vast forever
One grand, sweet song.

—KINGSLEY

SANDRA REGINA VOGT
Sandy

The wine of love is music,
The feast of love is song.

—THOMPSON

PHYLLIS ANN VOLLMER
Phyllis

She is as gentle as zephyrs blowing below the violet.

—SHAKESPEARE

AND OUR MEMORIES DEAR . . .

SANTA'S HAPPY HELPERS . . . Of course Santa had to have his elves and so Marene Thiemet, Cathy Roe, Liz Oesch, Barbara Durso, and Judy Schmitt were honored to be of service to one so great and powerful.

MAGIC MOMENTS at the Junior-Senior Prom will long be remembered by Joanne Maruska and Karen Bour.

FLASH QUICKLY PAST —

MARGARET ELLEN WAHBY
Peggy

Of manner gentle, of affections mild.
In wit a woman; simplicity a child.

—POPE

MARY ELLEN WEHLAGE

'Tis true your buddings miss is very charming.

—BYRON

MARY FRANCES WHITELAW
Fran

A merry heart doeth good like a medicine.

BARBARA ANN WIECK
Barb

A contented heart is an even sea in the midst of all storms.

SEEN AT THE PROM were Sandy Voght, Jackie Free, Mary Ellen Wehlage, Carol Mayo, and Barbara Wieck.

Dear Sherry, Keep up the good tennis, Rancho (Bonspiel ?) It you can't play tennis play bad mitton. When you marry Tracey, let your chaplene be your maid of honor and lead girls, flowers and your friend, Marilee

GRADUATION'S COME AT LAST

MARY DOLORES WIECK
Mary Dee

I have a heart with room for every joy.

—BAILEY

JOYCE LORETTA WINDMOELLER
Joyce

She was a form of life and light
That seen, became a part of sight,
And rose where'er I turn'd mine eye,
The morning star of memory.

—BYRON

DONNA MARIA ZIMMERMAN
Donna

Silence that spake, and eloquence of the eyes.

—HOMER

MARILEE ZYCH

Let him bear the palm who deserves it.

—JOHN JORTIN

LIGHT IS THE TASK WHEN MANY SHARE THE TOIL.
